RECEPTION MONDAY EVENING HONORS NEW CHURCH ASSISTANTS

An informal reception will be given in the Sunday school rooms of the Presbyterian church Monday evening at which time the congregation will meet Miss Alice Longenecker, the church's missionary to the Belgian Congo, and Miss Rachel Hassell, the new director of music and young people's work. The reception will be held in the ladies' parlor and the adjoining rooms from 8 until 10 o'clock.

Recently the church assumed the support of a missionary and secured Miss Longenecker who is leaving in a few weeks for Africa as its own missionary. Miss Longenecker was born in Belgian Congo of missionary parents. She came to this country for her education and attended Queen's college in Charlotte where she received her degree. She then trained at the Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore and received her license as a nurse. She will go to Africa and will assist in the medical work as well as participating in the evangelistic work of the mission. The church is very anxious that all its members will meet Miss Longenecker.

Miss Rachel Hassell, the new director of music and young people's work who will arrive in Raeford on Monday to assume her new duties in the church, will also be presented to the members of the church at this reception. Miss Hassell was born in Japan of missionary parents and came to America for her education. She received her degree in music at Mary Baldwin college, Staunton, Va. After teaching public school music for two years, she became a home mission worker in Albemarle Presbytery. She comes to the Raeford church from this work at Plymouth, N. C.

All members of the congregation and friends of the church are invited to attend—men, women and children.

CHAMINADE CLUB BEGINS YEAR'S WORK

The Chaminaide music club held its first meeting of the new year on Tuesday evening, September 18th at the home of Mrs. R. L. Murray with Mrs. W. M. Thomas and Mrs. T. B. Lester, Jr. joint hostesses. Vases of fall flowers, attractively arranged, were used in the living and dining rooms.

Mrs. J. S. Poole, president, was in the chair and several matters of business were discussed before going into the regular program. Mrs. W. B. McLaughlin conducted the study followed by a sacred number sung by Mrs. W. R. Barrington. Miss Agnes Mae Johnson gave a piano solo, written by a North Carolina composer, Charles Vardell. The hostesses served home made ice cream and cake, nuts and coffee demi-tasse.

MRS. CAMERON HOSTESS TO GARDEN CLUB

Enthusiastic gardeners met with Mrs. H. A. Cameron last Friday afternoon. The meeting was held in the summer house and plans and programs for the year were discussed. The club will meet the first Tuesday in each month. At each meeting there will be practical group discussions and a flower arrangement will figure at each meeting. Mrs. Cameron served a chicken salad course with iced tea to those present.

MRS. McANULTY RETURNS

Mrs. J. H. McAnulty has returned to Raeford from Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Md., where she has been with her husband all summer. Mrs. McAnulty, the former Miss Tiny Loper, is back with Farmers Furnishing company and Raeford Furniture company, as bookkeeper.

HOSTESS TO AUXILIARY

Mrs. A. D. Gore and Mrs. R. L. Murray were hostesses to the American Legion auxiliary Tuesday evening at the home of the latter. The president, Mrs. Murray, presided and business matters of interest were discussed. Following the business, a memorandum on community organization was discussed. Ice cream, cake and nuts were served.
