WE ARE WELL SERVED

The American people have been shown in a graphic manner dur-ing the post three years the im-portance of their transportation industries which previously many of for granted. Politicians thought of them primarily as some-thing to legislate against, regulate or tax. The war has demonstrated that no branch of transportation in a ation as vast as ours, is unimportant We are used to being well served in our country with everything the people want, and we never realize the excellence of the service we receive until a crisis brings it to our atten-

500,000 shipments went by air.

This is but another of the countof the manner in which American business stands ready and able to serve the government and the people. There is no waiting and there is little confusion. It is this ability of private enterprise to meet emergencies that enable the United States to confound those who planned our destruction.

You can't lick a country that works in this manner, because the people are constantly on their toes and ready to go when occasion demands.

They are the folks that get all the blame if anything goes wrong at a school and no praise if they have a good school. Lots of folks are so indifferent as to who is in charge of their school that they do not even know who the committeemen are. In this and subsequent columns we wish to give you a thumbnall sketch of the committeemen of the various districts in the county.
