IT'S ABOUT TIME

At the Kiwanis meeting last Thursday night the subject of the very poor telephone service furnished this community by the Carolina Telephone and Telegraph company for the past decade or two came up for discussion. Ways and means of remedying the situation were talked about and first it was naturally suggested that an appeal be made to the company to improve their service.

However, further discussion revealed that this would probably do no good, as several persons present stated that appeals had been made without result. Neill McFadyen, mayor of Raeford, stated that he had been looking into the town records to find the terms of the company's franchise here but that up to now he had been unable to find a copy of it.

Our idea is that this town should get a competent lawyer to investigate this franchise and then appeal to the State Utilities Commission or take whatever other action necessary to have the franchise of the Carolina Telephone and Telegraph company here revoked if they do not agree to do something about the service and equipment here at once and then DO IT.

This company will undoubtedly make the reply that they have done nothing because of the war. That excuse is probably valid for the period of the war, but the telephones here were in a condition just about as bad as now for quite a few years before the war.

Another stunt which might make them sit up and take notice if practiced by all subscribers is that of paying monthly phone bills for only so much time during a month as the phones were operational, on a pro rata basis. We don't know whether this is legal or not, but several Kiwanians stated last Thursday night that they had followed this procedure and that the company had not collected the amount deducted for non-operational time.

At any rate, Mr. and Mrs. Raeford, it is certainly about time we did something.

FOR
AMERICA

The light of Liberty—our Torch of Freedom—shines again through the night, a symbol of the Victory our fighting men have won. How long it will burn will depend on the earnestness with which we live to make another war impossible.
Meanwhile—for the last time, America—we are urged to investment in bonds to finance the rehabilitation and hospitalization of those who brought the light of Liberty back to the world. They've finished their job—let's finish ours. Invest in their future and Yours Now.
