MRS. SMITH AND MRS. LEWIS ENTERTAIN

Mrs. Marcus Smith and Mrs. R. B. Lewis were charming and gracious hostesses at two lovely parties last week, given at the home of the latter. On both occasions the home was very attractive with arrangements of mixed summer flowers.

On Friday at one o'clock they entertained with a luncheon and afterwards rock was played at four tables, with high score prize going to Mrs. H. W. B. Whitley. Mrs. Wiley, mother of Mrs. H. K. Holland, and Mrs. C. P. Vinson, were remembered with gifts by the hostesses.

Again on Saturday evening they were hostesses at a bridge dinner. Covers were laid for guests at six tables placed in the living and dining rooms and on the porch. After a delectable meal bridge was played with Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Lester, Jr., winning high score prize. Bingo was then played and Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Lester, Jr., again won the prize.
