

THE WORLD'S GREATEST SCHOOL FOR LEADERSHIP

The Army Ground Forces soldier is famed for his ability to carry out any assignment with resourcefulness and initiative—the qualities that make leaders in civilian life as well as the Army.

The Ground Forces not only teach you leadership—they equip you with fine job training to go with it. In peacetime, the Army is a gigantic school-going organization—with training available in many skills and trades. Courses offered range all the way from automotive mechanics to welding—designed to help you find the work you like and do best.

Increased Army pay scales are now in effect, and you receive 20% additional pay for overseas service.

Thousands of outstanding young men, able to meet the new higher standards required, are enlisting in the Regular Army. They are beginning interesting, useful careers by learning leadership along with special skills. Visit your nearest U. S. Army Recruiting Station for details.

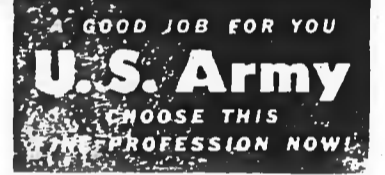

HIGHLIGHTS OF REGULAR ARMY ENLISTMENT

- 1. Any branch of service has a quota to be filled.
- 2. Regular Army enlistments have a minimum of 3-year term.
- 3. Minimum age from 18 to 24 years.
- 4. Family allowances for dependents of men enlisting or reenlisting continue until 6 months after official termination of war.
- 5. Enlistments for 1, 2 or 3 years.
- 6. Option to retire at half pay for the rest of your life after 20 years' service—increasing to three-quarters pay after 30 years of service. All previous honorable active federal military service counts toward retirement.

erated, even defended by some newspapers.

On the first day of April, 1943, ice covered everything, and peaches were as big as bird eggs, and we had peach pie from some of those peaches.

The latest snow I ever saw was the morning of the 17th day of April, 1871. Peaches were not hurt by that snow as it turned warmer after it had fallen.

It is thought a majority of the people and newspapers favor the closed shop bill which the house committee has adopted.
