MORE ABOUT SCHOOL NEWS

pupils in assembly Friday concerning the gangster world and prison life.

The high school has quite a number of absences this week due to colds and flu.

The PTA will meet next Monday evening in the high school building. Mrs. McGoggan, home economics teacher in the high school, will be in charge of the program. All parents are urged to attend.

ROCKFISH SCHOOL NEWS

The PTA will meet Friday night at 8 o'clock. We are trying to keep the lunch room in operation and hope something can be done to help at this meeting. Attendance has not been good these past few days as it has been this year due to sickness.

Mrs. Marshall Newton, grade mother for the seventh grade, visited the class and entertained them and the basketball teams with a weiner roast Tuesday.

The boys and girls were very happy to share the honor of winning the grammar grade tournament sponsored by the American Legion. The Rockfish girls made a total of 12 points while Raeford girls trailed close

Mrs. Koonce's first and second grades presented an interesting chapel program featuring the flag and George Washington. Betty Scarborough and Elizabeth Overton danced the minuet.
