AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY MEETS

The American Legion Auxiliary met Monday evening at 7:30 with Mrs. Arthur D. Gore and Mrs. John Walker at the home of Mrs. Gore.

Miss Elizabeth Parker, senior in Hoke County High school who recently won the District Oratorical contest in Fayetteville, gave her speech entitled "The Rights We Defend." Mrs. R. L. Murray led the members in pledging allegiance to the flag after which the national anthem was sung. Miss Mayme McKeithan gave the chaplain's prayer.

Mrs. Gore, president, presided over the business session during which reports from different officers were given. Several committees were also appointed. The Auxiliary voted to send representatives from Hoke High school to Girls' State to be held in Greensboro during June. Mrs. Israel Mann, chairman of hospital committee, and all the members of the committee working with her were commended for the splendid work that they had done for the past year at Veterans hospital in Fayetteville.

The hostesses served ice cream and cake.

MRS. HARTSELL CLUB HOSTESS

Mrs. Van Hartsell was hostess to her bridge club on Wednesday evening of last week. After several interesting progressions were played Mr. and Mrs. D. B. McFadyen, Jr. were awarded the high score prize. Mrs. L. J. Trott of New London, mother of Mrs. Hartsell, was remembered with a lovely gift. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Miss Sarah Lytch of Winston-Salem spent the week end with her parents, Mr and Mrs. Clarence Lytch, Mrs. Dougald McIntyre and son of Toronto, Canada, were also guests in the Lytch home Sunday.

DOCTORS ENTERTAINED AT BUFFET SUPPER

On Friday evening of last week the Hoke County Medical Auxiliary entertained the doctors of Hoke county at a buffet supper, which was given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Murray. The occasion was in celebration of Doctor's Day, which was March 30.

On arrival each doctor was presented a carnation.

Arrangements of spring flowers decorated the home. The dining room table was centered with a lovely arrangement of jonquils and narcissuses flanked by yellow candles, and in the living room arrangements of red and pink flowers were used. After the guests had served themselves at the buffet table they were seated at tables arranged in the living room.

Mrs. R. A. Matheson, president of the Auxiliary, gave a short talk, telling the origin and the meaning of Doctor's Day. During the social hour following supper, Dr. Matt of Sanatorium played popular and old songs on the accordion, and Dr. Thigpen gave a slight of hand performance with cards.

There were sixteen guests present.

LESTERS ENTERTAIN AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Lester, Jr. entertained several of their friends on Tuesday evening with a delightful dinner party followed by bridge.

Covers were laid for eight at the dining room table, and after dinner bridge was played. Robert Gatlin won the men's high score prize and Mrs. R. B. Lewis won the women's high.

MRS. BLUE HOSTESS TO CLUB

Mrs. N. B. Blue entertained her bridge club Thursday afternoon. Attractive flower arrangements were used in the music and living rooms.

After several interesting progressions, scores were totaled and Mrs. Arthur D. Gore was awarded high score prize for members and Mrs. A. K. Currie received visitor's high. Mrs. Marshall Thomas, who left this week to visit in several mid western states, was remembered with an attractive going-away gift.

The hostess served a salad plate and coffee.
