EASTER

The Bible tells us that it happened. The cross shows us how it came to pass. The flowers symbolize the resurrection. Flowers and cross and Bible; they are more than a pretty picture. They present an answer to the greatest of life's questions, "After death, what then?"

You can't explain mysteries, but you can believe them. For nineteen hundred years Christians have been unable to explain the resurrection of Jesus Christ, but they have believed it. For those who have not read, or reading, have not believed, the answer to life's greatest question is, "After death, nothing!" For Christians, who know that Jesus Christ proved eternal life—for them the answer is, "After death, life!"

The Bible tells us that He died and rose again from the grave. The cross tells us that He did it for us. The flowers tell us that through Easter we, too, have the hope of everlasting life. Bible, cross, flowers! They are the Easter story. They are the message of the Church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend and support the church of his choice. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church on Sunday and read your Bible daily.
