CHAMINADE CLUB HEARS PIANO CONCERT BY FMC ARTIST

Members of The Chaminaide Music club met at the home of Mrs. J. S. Johnson on Saturday evening, May 3, to enjoy a piano concert, which is the first of a series of musical events planned to commemorate "National Music Week."

The guest artist for the evening, Miss Aileen McMillan, delighted her audience by her charming personality as well as by her ability and technic.

Miss McMillan, who is a graduate of Converse college, Spartanburg, S. C., has also studied at Fontainebleau, France, and has held teaching positions at Meredith college and Converse. At the present time she is a member of the faculty of Flora Macdonald college, Red Springs.

During the social hour the hostesses, Mrs. R. B. Lewis, Mrs. Luke Bethune, Miss Josephine Hall and Miss Agnes Mae Johnson served block ice cream and pound cake.

WOMEN MEMBERS OF THE FACULTY HONORED

The grademothers of the Raeford schools entertained all the feminine members of the Raeford school faculty and school personnel with a tea on Wednesday afternoon. This was given in Mrs. H. A. Cameron's summer house.

All teachers present were presented with exquisite corsages, the gift of the Raeford Garden club. During the afternoon sandwiches, cookies and punch were served. Between 75 and 100 enjoyed this most delightful occasion.

MRS. J. C. CAMPBELL HONORED

Mrs. J. C. Campbell was honored guest at a birthday dinner last Sunday, given by her daughter, Mrs. Murphy McLauchlin, at her home near Antioch.

Only members of Mrs. McLauchlin's family were present, and enjoyed a delicious birthday dinner. Mrs. McLauchlin received many lovely gifts.

She is now representative here for the Laurinburg Production-Credit Association.

Mr. Clark is a graduate of Hoke County High School. He was a member of the U. S. Army for 5 years and is now engaged in farming and is in business at Clark and Davis Sinclair Station.

MRS. GORE ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Arthur D. Gore was hostess to her bridge club Wednesday afternoon at her home on Magnolia Street. Two tables were in play.

After several interesting progressions, Mrs. R. L. Murray was awarded high score prize for club members, and Mrs. R. B. Lewis received visitor's high.

The hostess served a dessert course and coffee.

GARDEN CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. LYTCH AND MRS. MCFADYEN

Mrs. Lacy McFadyen and Mrs. Clarence Lytch entertained the Raeford Garden club on Tuesday afternoon. This meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Lytch and was the last meeting of the year.

Much business of importance was discussed and officers for the next club year were elected. Mrs. T. B. Lester, Jr. was made president, Mrs. Paul Dickson, Sr. vice-president and Mrs. Marion Gatlin, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Paul Dickson, Sr. was in charge of the program for the afternoon, which was very short in order that members might attend the pageant at Flora Macdonald. The correct pronunciation of a number of flowers and a few timely and practical points on planting azaleas and pruning shrubbery that has just finished blooming were given.

The hostesses served ice cream, fresh strawberries and cake and salted nuts. Lilmar Sue Gatlin assisted the hostesses.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN TO MEET

The annual Birthday meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church will be held Wednesday evening, May 14, at 7:30 o'clock. Following this, at 8:30 o'clock, there will be a reception in the undercroft of the church for Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Heyward. Members of the other churches in town are invited to join the Presbyterians in this welcome to their new minister and his wife.

ENJOY BARBECUE SUPPER
