

Socials-Personal Items . . .

MRS. WILLIS SUPPER GUEST

Mrs. H. A. Cameron entertained delightfully, on Tuesday evening with an informal supper in honor of Mrs. H. S. Willis, wife of the new superintendent of the Sanatorium. Very close friends of Mrs. Cameron's and the Doctor's wives of Raeford were invited to meet Mrs. Willis and her sister, Mrs. Crammer of Southport, who was visiting her.

About 20 guests gathered in the flower garden of Mrs. Cameron's home at 7 o'clock and enjoyed an hour or more of conversation before being served a delicious supper in the summer house. Mrs. T. Cameron, Miss Marie Cameron and Miss Jane Todd McCain assisted the hostess in serving. In addition to the guests from the Sanatorium, Mrs. Willis and Mrs. Crammer, was Mrs. Paul McCain of Southern Pines.

BEVAN - SAWYER INVITATIONS ISSUED

The wedding of Miss Mary Louise Bevan and PFC Pete S. Sawyer will take place in the Shiloh Presbyterian church at Montrose, Saturday, July 5, at 8:30 o'clock. Friends and relatives are cordially invited to attend.

ENJOY PICNIC

The children and grandchildren of W. A. McLean enjoyed a picnic lunch in the grove of Mr. McLean's home Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Stuart and children of Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow McLean of Clinton, Mr. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert McLean and family and Mr. and Mrs. Hallie Blythe. The occasion was in celebration of Father's Day.

Mrs. Kenneth McKeithan and son, Sandy, spent the week end in Raleigh. Mr. McKeithan, who attended a convention at State college last week, returned with them home on Sunday.

MISS JOHNSON AND GORE ATTEND GIRL'S STATE IN GREENSBORO

Misses Miralyn Johnson and Gwen Gore represented Hoke County high school at the 8th annual Tar Heel Girl's State held at Woman's College in Greensboro last week. The American Legion Auxiliary of Raeford sponsored these two representatives as a part of the Americanism program that is participated in by the entire state of North Carolina. The week's study in government was led by Louise Alexander, associate professor of political science at the college, assisted by visiting specialists. On Wednesday all the delegates journeyed to Raleigh where they toured the capital buildings and had a mock session of their "general assembly." They also heard an address by Gov. Cherry and Secretary of State, Thad Eure. In the late afternoon the representatives visited Boy's State at Chapel Hill and had a picnic with them, which was followed by a dance. The session closed Friday.

MRS. HARTSELL BRIDGE HOSTESS

On Tuesday evening of last week Mrs. Van Hartsell was hostess when she entertained at two tables of bridge.

Guests enjoyed a delicious supper before the game. High score prizes were awarded to Ben Robinson and Miss Peggy Bethune.

ENTERTAINS AT FISH FRY

On Monday afternoon of this week Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Plummer entertained at a fish fry. The community was invited. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Al Brazier and son of Boston, Mass., Mrs. Tippet of Oxford and Mrs. Myra Mott of Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McDiarmid and children spent the week end in the home of Mrs. Ina T. Lentz.

MISS BLUE HOSTESS IN PARKTON

Miss Sara Blue was hostess to the "eight" bridge club at her home in Parkton on Thursday evening.

After several interesting progressions high score prize for the men was awarded to D. B. McFadyen, Jr. and Mrs. Van Hartsell won the ladies high score.

At the end of the evening Miss Blue served a delicious salad course.

PATTERSON - WILLIAMS

Miss Carrie Ruth Williams, daughter of John C. Williams and the late Mrs. Carrie Nimocks Williams, became the bride of Charles Daniel Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Patterson of Route 2, Raeford, Sunday, June 1, at the First Presbyterian church of Fayetteville. Dr. Walter B. Healy, pastor of the bride, officiated.

Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Margaret Craig, organist, and Miss Margaret Lewis, vocalist.

The bride and bridegroom entered the church together. The bride was attired in a becoming white wool suit with which she wore brown accessories and a corsage of talisman roses.

Mr. Patterson is employed by Southern Dairies, and Mrs. Patterson is employed at Belk-Hensdale in Fayetteville.

Immediately following the ceremony the bridal couple was honored at a reception, given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Williams, Jr. at Westlawn Avenue, after which Mr. and Mrs. Patterson left for a wedding trip to Virginia Beach. They are now making their home at Route 1, Fayetteville.

Mrs. Bruce Morris returned home over the week end after spending the past week in Quantico, Va. visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. P. Trexler.

ATTEND CONFERENCE

Those attending the Young People's Conference of the Fayetteville Presbytery at Flora MacDonald college this week are: Bobby Murray, Paul Johnson, Bobby McNeill, Jimmie, Johnnie and Neill Blue Sinclair, Lauchlin MacDonald, Doris Keith, Elmira Whitley, Julian H. Blue Jr. and Alton Clark.

Lt. Don Richardson, paratrooper, 82nd Airborne Division, was injured in a jump at Ft. Bragg last week. He will be confined to the hospital at Bragg for a minimum of three months, probably much longer, having suffered a severe back injury. Lt. and Mrs. Richardson have been living in Raeford for about 18 months and have an apartment now with Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Niven.

Misses Anne and Allie Spoon spent the past Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Baker. They came to bring Mrs. Baker's brother, Cleon, who has been with her since the beginning of Mr. Baker's illness. Mr. Baker is improving nicely now.

Misses Kathryn McDonald and Pat Lamont, who have been at Sullivan's Island with Mr. and Mrs. William Lamont, Jr., are spending this week here with Kathryn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. A. McDonald.

Mrs. Lena H. Terrell attended the second annual Synodical Training school held at Peace college during the past two weeks. While in Raleigh she also attended State college commencement where her nephew, H. T. Chapin, Jr., was one of the graduates.

Miss Jeraldine Maxwell of the Baker-Thompson school of nursing at Lumberton has been chosen by the Fayetteville District to represent District No. 7 in the Statewide contest to select "Miss North Carolina Student Nurse of 1947". Miss Maxwell, along with the other representatives from the nine district nurses associations in the state, will be the guest of the North Carolina Hospital Association in Raleigh on July 1, for final judging. A special program is being arranged for the coronation of the student selected in the State Capitol at 8 o'clock p. m. July 1st.

A committee of North Carolina's leading citizens, headed by Kay Kyser, will serve as judges. Gov. Cherry has been asked to crown the winner, who will be given an all-expenses-paid vacation at the beach, or some other suitable award.

Robert Looper of New York City is visiting his mother, Mrs. J. P. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Herby Allen left Monday night for Pensacola, Fla., where they plan to make their home. At present they are living in the home of Mr. Allen's parents.

Mrs. George W. Hanna and daughter, Sara Louise, of Gastonia, and George Ranson McAuley of Statesville are visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. N. McLauchlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brown of Wilmington spent several days last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lilly. Mrs. Lilly's brother, J. E. Gillis, of Washington, D. C. is a guest in the Lilly home this week.

Mrs. Dallas Daley is at Watts hospital in Durham nursing W. P. Horton, of Pittsboro, who was injured in an automobile accident on the Chapel Hill-Pittsboro highway last night. Mrs. Daley was a private nurse for Mr. Horton's wife before her death several years ago.

Ben Robinson attended the June German at Rocky Mount over the week end.

Mrs. J. A. Greene left over the week end for Saluda to spend the summer. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Greene and France Ward, who spent the week end there.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Upchurch, Sr., and Mrs. Bill Upchurch and children spent Tuesday at Bogue Sound.

Mrs. J. A. Baucom had as her guest several days last week her sister, Mrs. Kelly of Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. Israel Mann and family spent Sunday in Warsaw. They went especially for Shirley Mann, who spent last week there in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Brooks.

Mrs. Richard Duke and children Mack and Judy, of Richmond, Va. are spending this week here visiting Mrs. Duke's sisters, Mrs. Berder Niven and Mrs. Pauline Clark.

Mrs. Sidney Epstein and daughter, Catherine, are spending this week with relatives at Dillon, South Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. William Black of Greensboro were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dickson Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Baucom spent Tuesday in Wake Forest with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harrison.

Mrs. Israel Mann and Mrs. A. D. Gore of the Raeford Legion Auxiliary put on a bingo party for the patients at the Fayetteville Veteran hospital on Friday of last week. The second Friday in each month the auxiliary sponsors a recreational program at the hospital as a part of their hospitalization program.

Mrs. B. B. Cole spent last week with relatives in Elizabethtown.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Livingston and children spent several days this week in Spartanburg, S. C. visiting friends.

Dr. and Mrs. Howard Baucom of Goldsboro were week end visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Baucom.

Capt. and Mrs. A. J. Newby of Honeycutt spent the week end here with Lt. and Mrs. Don Richardson.

Miss Kathryn Blue is spending two weeks at Ocean Drive.

Rev. and Mrs. B. P. Robinson had as their guests Sunday, Mrs. Robinson's brother, C. N. Tew and daughters, Jean and Betty Ruth of Norfolk, Va., and Mrs. Duke Howell and granddaughter, Wilmer Grey Hall of Roseboro. They also have as their guest this week Miss Shirley Allen of Fayetteville.

Mrs. Frances Davis left Tuesday for Jackson to attend the wedding of Miss Clarine Duke to R. C. Knight.

Arnold McKay attended an English teachers' conference in Chicago last week.

Miss Laura McDougald left last week to attend summer school at Atlantic Christian college in Wilson.

Billy Plummer has returned to school at Auburn, Ala. after spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Plummer.

Mrs. Charles M. Allison is visiting in Richmond, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Seals, Helen, Bill and Randy left here last Thursday morning for their home at Port Arthur, Texas, after visiting relatives here.

Rev. and Mrs. Hilton Seals of Duke University spent the week end here with Mrs. Luther Seals. They are visiting Mrs. Seals' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cullen Fortenburt at Fallston this week.

Israel and Milton Mann spent Tuesday in Charlotte buying merchandise.

Mrs. W. B. Gullede returned home Friday night after visiting relatives at Morven.

Lee O'Brian is attending summer school at UNC, Chapel Hill.

Mrs. P. A. Webb and Jimmy left Saturday for Winston-Salem to visit Mrs. Webb's mother, Mrs. Spry.

Mrs. Minor Davis and son of Rocky Mount are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Mary Helton has been a patient at Moore County hospital since last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Crumpton of Belmont were week end visitors in the home of Mrs. B. R. Gatlin.

Carol Seals is visiting, her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carson Strother at Albermarle.

Mr. and Mrs. William Harris of Fayetteville left Saturday for Fayetteville, Arkansas, to spend two weeks with Mrs. Harris' relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Poovey left yesterday morning for Blowing Rock where they will attend a Textile convention June 5-9. They plan to return home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Harlee and family of Charlotte spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Freeman. Miss Mary Frances Freeman remained to spend several weeks.

Miss Nita Gullede accompanied her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Pascall, of Greensboro, to Miami Beach, Florida Sunday to spend the next two weeks.

Mrs. R. L. Murray and Bobby Murray attended the wedding of Mrs. Murray's nephew, P. T. Hines Jr. and Miss Frances Mann, which took place Saturday at 5:30 p. m. in the Central Methodist church at Morehead City. After the wedding they attended a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Lee Mann.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Williamson of Timberland had as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Williamson and Dr. and Mrs. V. M. Williamson and son, V. M., Jr., all of Hartsville, S. C., and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Williamson.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Norris and Kitzzy Lou spent the week end in Dunn visiting Mr. Norris' mother, who is sick.

Mrs. Lillian Oliver and Lillmar Sue Gatlin left yesterday for Shallotte to spend several days.

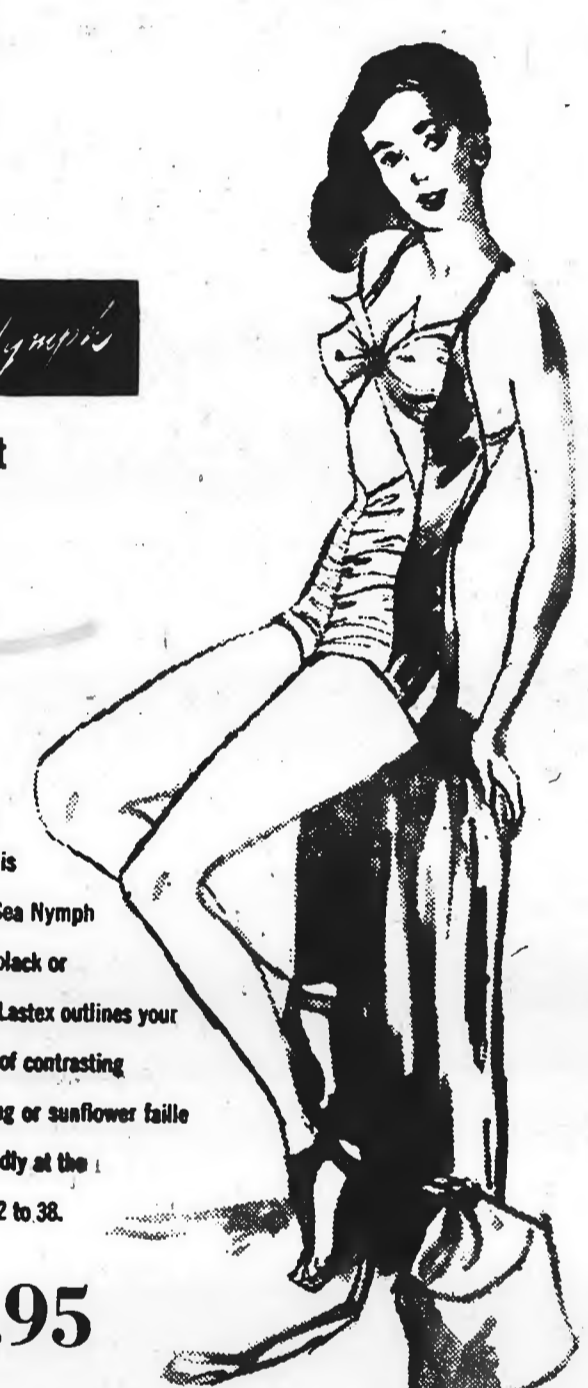

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Roberts had as their guests over the week end Mrs. Roberts' brother, John McPhaul, and Mrs. McPhaul of Charleston, S. C.

J. I. Hubbard is spending this week in Charlotte.

WEWO

1080 KC

flirt with the SUN in a

Your midriff plays peek-a-boo with the sun in this svelte one piece Sea Nymph swim suit. Sleek black or royal blue satin. Lastex outlines your figure. The panel of contrasting turquoise, shocking or sunflower faile *Lastex winks boldly at the passing parade! 32 to 38.

$8.95

BELK-HENSDALE COMPANY

"Raeford's Shopping Center"

IT TAKES TWO TO MAKE A BANK LOAN

A Borrower

There must be a borrower who can make sound use of the money — and provide protection for depositors' funds.

A Lender

There must be available funds. This Bank has money to lend, and is ready and willing to make loans to credit-worthy borrowers.

Your Loan Application will Be Welcome

The Bank of Raeford

Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.

Vacation Time

is play time for the little folks.

A complete line of sun suits, play suits, shorts and swim suits for boys and girls up to six years of age.

AT

LITTLE FOLKS CORNER

Laurinburg, North Carolina
Open from ten until six each week

