MISS WARREN BRIDE OF CAPTAIN HOOD

In a ceremony marked by beauty and charm Saturday evening, July 12 at 7:30 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church, Miss Jennie Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Warren of Raeford became the bride of Capt. Willis Samuel Hood, M. C., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hood of Birmingham, Ala.

Chaplain Milford D. Barrick of Ft. Bragg officiated, assisted by Rev. W. B. Heyward, pastor of the Raeford Presbyterian church, using the double ring ceremony. A program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Alice Walker, organist, and Mrs. H. W. McPhaul, violinist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin and fingertip veil of imported bridal illusion. She carried a prayer book with a white orchid and streamers of satin ribbon.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Harold E. Stone of Falls Church, Va., sister of the bride, wore light blue taffeta and a draped net beret. She carried a nosegay of mixed flowers.

Mary Eloise Roberts of Raeford, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a dress of white organza and carried a white basket filled with pastel flowers. Harold E. Stone, Jr., ring bearer, carried the ring in the heart of a white lily.

Capt. John T. Latham, M. C., of New Market, Ala. was best man. Ushers were Capt. Bernard Krasnef, M. C., of Quincy, Mass., Capt. R. C. Quillin, M. C., of Ft. Bragg, 1st Lt. Harold E. Stone, AAF, of Falls Church, Va. and 1st Lt. R. D. Carter, M. C., of Ft. Bragg.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception at their home, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

The couple left for a wedding trip at Wrightsville Beach after which they will make their home at Fort McPherson, Ga., where Capt. Hood is stationed.

After graduation from Hoke High school Mrs. Hood attended school at Louisburg college. For the past 3 1-2 years she has been employed at Fort Bragg.

Capt. Hood was graduated from the University of Alabama Medical School and finished his medical training at the University of Pennsylvania.
