ing this, Howell said he went out and drove Dixon to his home where Dixon got out, thanked Howell for the ride, and went into the house.

Howell took no action against Dixon after the occurrence, legal or otherwise, except verbal. He says he was called before the Grand jury on Monday afternoon, where he related his account of the affair. The bill of indictment is the action of the Grand jury.

ANNOUNCEMENT TO OWNERS OF ARMED FORCES LEAVE BONDS

The Bank of Raeford is authorized by the United States Treasury Department to cash Armed Forces Leave Bonds for registered owners any time after September 1st, 1947.

There is no requirement that these bonds be cashed at this time in order to get your money. They can be cashed any time in the future, upon demand without delay.

Unless you are in real need of the money now this institution and the United States Treasury Department strongly recommend that you permit your bond to earn interest at 2½ percent (up to its maturity) until you actually need the cash. We will be glad to serve you any time.

To facilitate identification, owners should bring their original separation papers with them when presenting bonds for payment.

Under no circumstances may registered owners cash their bonds before September 2nd, 1947.
