MISS HOWELL SHOWN COURTESY

Miss Retha Howell, bride-elect of September, was shown an attractive bridal courtesy last Wednesday evening when Mrs. Harry Harrison of Wake Forest entertained here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Baucome.

Seasonable flowers were effectively combined in the living room where three tables of rook were in play. A miniature bride and groom, flanked by white candles, decorated the dining table. On arrival Miss Howell was presented a lovely white corsage of baby chrysanthemums and tube roses.

During progressions cokes were served. At the conclusion of the game Miss Mildred Campbell was awarded high score prize and she also captured the floating prize.

Miss Howell was presented a shower of lovely miscellaneous gifts by those present and a gift of silver in her chosen pattern by the hostess.

At the end of the evening ice cream, nuts and bridal cake were served.
