LITERATURE CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. ROBERTS

On Tuesday evening of this week the Literature Department of the Raeford Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. W. W. Roberts, with Miss Mayme McKeithan and Mrs. W. J. Coates serving as assistant hostesses. Mrs. Roberts' home was attractively decorated with dahlias, roses and other fall flowers.

Mrs. G. B. Rowland, chairman, presided. She welcomed Mrs. W. B. Heyward and Mrs. Bill Howell, both new members, into the club.

Mrs. A. L. O'Brian discussed awards of the State Federation of Women's clubs and urged members to enter competition. The topic for study was "Peace". Mrs. Walter McPhaul spoke on "What Are Our Needs," and Mrs. Ernest Campbell on "What Price Peace." Both gave the club much to think about along lines of formulating peace.

At the conclusion of the program the hostesses served coffee, sandwiches and cookies.

BURNS - CURRIE

Plans have been completed for the wedding of Miss Ernestine Burns, daughter of Mrs. W. E. Burns and the late Mr. Burns of Maxton, and Irvin Raymond Currie, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Currie of Raeford.

The wedding will take place at the First Presbyterian church in Maxton, Saturday evening, October 11, at 6:45 o'clock. The Rev. James Appleby of the Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Va., a former pastor of the bride, will officiate.

Friends and relatives are invited to attend.

RAEFORD NATIVE APPEARS IN CONCERT IN CHARLOTTE

On October 3rd, at Case Auditorium in Charlotte, the Charlotte Music Club presented a six-piano ensemble in a program of familiar music.

The personnel of the ensemble were Mary Poole Lowe, director, Serene Turnage McLean, chairman, Bruce Berryhill, Jean Robinson Callaghan, Evelyn Reynolds and Faire Robinson.

Since there is no music written for six pianos, Mrs. Lowe arranged all numbers for the ensemble. The numbers were rendered with spirit and precision to a capacity audience, and critics were lavish in their praise of the performance.

Raeford people attending the concert were Mrs. Ina Bethune, Mrs. Arch Currie, Mrs. Tommie Upchurch, Mrs. Lewis Upchurch, Mrs. Julian Blue, Mrs. Younger Snead, Mrs. Crawford Thomas and Mrs. Graham Dickson.

Capt. Corbett Thigpen of Augusta, Ga. was a visitor in Raeford Tuesday. He came especially to deer hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gullledge and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Gullledge's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, at Evergreen.

MRS. MANN CLUB HOSTESS

Mrs. Israel Mann was hostess to her bridge club one evening last week.

The living room, where two tables were in play, was attractively arranged with lovely fall flowers. After several interesting progressions high score prize was awarded to Mrs. T. B. Lester, Jr. and Mrs. Paul Dezerne captured the floating prize. Mrs. Marshall Thomas was the only guest other than members.

Mrs. Mann served a delicious salad plate with coffee.

GARDEN CLUB MEETS AT GATLIN HOME

The Raeford Garden club held its first meeting of the year Tuesday evening of this week at the home of Mrs. Hallie Gatlin, with Mrs. Lacy McFadyen assistant hostess.

Mrs. T. B. Lester, Jr., chairman, presided, and plans were made for the year's work.

Mrs. Younger Snead gave an interesting talk on "Bulbs To Plant Now, and How To Plant Them." Mrs. H. A. Cameron talked on "Perennials To Be Planted Now." Each member brought bulbs for an exchange of bulbs.

At the end of the meeting delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

MISS MONROE BRIDE OF THOMAS WOOD

The wedding of Miss Edith Monroe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Monroe of Raeford, and Clyde Thomas Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wood of Raeford, took place Sunday afternoon, October 5, at 2 o'clock, in a lovely ceremony at the home of the bride's parents with only members of the immediate families present. Rev. H. L. Hemphill, pastor of the bride and groom, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Baskets of white gladioli, arrangements of long leaf pine and ivy decorated the living room.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Malcolm Gillis, pianist, played "I Love You Truly" and during the ceremony she played "Seal Us, O Holy Spirit." The bride and groom entered the living room unattended.

The bride wore a two piece light blue wool suit with black accessories and a shoulder corsage of red roses.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to points North.

Mrs. Wood was graduated from Hoke High school and holds a position with the REA office in Raeford.

Mr. Wood also attended Hoke High school and served three years with the Merchant Marines. He now holds a position with the Johnson Cotton Company of Raeford.

U. D. C. MEETS WITH MRS. STEVENS

The Raeford Chapter of the U. D. C. met Wednesday, October 1, in the home of Mrs. A. K. Stevens.

After the business session the meeting was turned over to Mrs. H. L. Gatlin, who led a most interesting discussion on "Confederate Ancestors." Each member present gave, in a few sentences, the name and record of the Confederate ancestor on whose service she was admitted to the U. D. C. Those who could do so brought photographs of him.

During the social hour the hostess, assisted by Mrs. W. B. McLauchlin, served a delicious ice course with demj-tasse.
