

HOKE HIGH NEWS

over the Laurinburg station. The kick-off will be at 3:30. This is the third game of the season and from Coach Faircloth's remarks, it will be one of the most hotly contested.

Representatives from the Laurinburg broadcasting station will be in Raeford on Friday, October 10 to hold auditions for Talent Hour program which will be presented Saturday morning at 9:15 by young people of Raeford. Be sure to tune in to station WEWO for this program.

At a meeting of the Journalism Club on Monday Miralyn Johnson was elected editor-in-chief and Gwen Gore to serve as associate editor.

The Beta Club members met Tuesday for the purpose of organizing. The club is composed of pupils whose scholastic average is eighty-eight or above and whose citizenship record is outstanding. Mrs. J. C. McLean is faculty sponsor. The members edit and publish the high school annual. The following officers were elected: Carlene Freeman, president; Graham King, vice-president; Nancy Lee Cole, secretary; Hilda Jordan, treasurer. Nita Gulledge was elected to serve as editor of the annual, with Milton Mann as associate editor. Bobby Murray will take up the duties of business manager and Marion Lewis will serve as associate business manager.

Class meetings have been held recently and nearly all the officers have been elected. Sixty per cent of the seniors who graduated from the Hoke County High School last spring are attending college this fall. This is an unusually good record and is far above the State's average of high school seniors enrolling in college. Two of the graduates are in nursing school.

William Freeman, Bonnie Kate Blue, Anne Gore, Alice Sutton Matheson, and Elizabeth Sudreth, newly elected cheer leaders, have held several pep meetings recently.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES COMMUNICATION TRAINING WITH GOOD PAY

Excellent training in all phases of communication—radio, radar, telephony, telegraphy, photography — are given in U. S. Army Signal Corps technical schools. Because of the highly confidential nature of much Signal Corps research, many subjects are taught which are not available to civilians anywhere at any price.

A 3-year enlistment in the Army or Air Force gives a man a chance of any branch of service, including the Signal Corps, in which there are openings. Once accepted, every man has the opportunity to qualify for technical school training. In addition, there's high pay, steady employment, good food, clothing, quarters, and travel. All of this is yours—plus a chance to save up to $2,000 during your enlistment. Here's your chance for a good start in life, with security as your goal.

BEER—America's Beverage of Moderation

What The LAW Requires

The question is sometimes raised as to what the law requires of retail beer dealers. Here are the principal requirements for those who sell malt beverages for consumption on the premises, as condensed from the North Carolina Beverage Control Act of 1939, as amended:

To obtain a retail beer license, one must show:

1. That he is over 21 years old and has been a resident of the State and a citizen of the United States for one year or more.
2. That he has not been convicted of a felony or other crime involving moral turpitude or adjudged guilty of violating the prohibition laws within two years.
3. That he intends to carry on the business for himself or under his immediate supervision and direction.

To keep his license, a retail dealer must not:

1. Knowingly sell malt beverages to anyone under 18 years of age. (Another act prohibits employment of minors under 18 years of age in places where beer is sold for consumption on the premises.)
2. Knowingly sell such beverages to intoxicated persons.
3. Sell such beverage outside the legal hours.
4. Permit disorderly conduct, improper or immoral entertainment, conduct or practices on premises.
5. Sell, offer for sale, possess or permit the consumption on the licensed premises of any alcoholic liquors not authorized under his license.

These are the fundamental points of the North Carolina code for beer dealers. This Committee heartily endorses every one of these requirements and through our Self-Regulation Program we feel that we have accomplished much toward bringing about their acceptance and observance by the great majority of beer dealers in North Carolina. For complete legal details regarding the sale of beer, one should refer to the law itself, a copy of which can be obtained free of charge from the Committee's Raleigh office.
