PRICE — COTHRAN VOWS SOLEMNIZED

Miss Pearl Kathleen Cothran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Cothran, became the bride of Jesse Floyd Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Price of Clarendon, in a candlelight ceremony performed at the home of the bride's parents, Saturday afternoon, October 18, at 7 o'clock. Rev. Joseph Woodson officiated. Wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Sue Woodson, pianist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a suit of ice blue gabardine and a corsage of white orchids. She was attended by her sister, Miss Thelma Cothran, as maid of honor. She wore a black gabardine suit with a corsage of white carnations. Little Barbara Annette Cothran, niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid and wore a pink suit with a corsage of white carnations.

Van Prict of Raleigh attended the groom as best man. Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception for members of the wedding party and guests, after which the couple left for a wedding trip to unannounced points. After October 21 they will be at home in Raleigh.

Mrs. Price is a graduate of Hoke County High school and Raleigh School of Commerce. She now holds a position in Raleigh.

Mr. Price also attended the Raleigh School of Commerce, and is now connected with the Curtis Candy Company of Raleigh.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wood of Angier, Mrs. Carry Maddox, Miss Mary Heath and sister, Mrs. Newell, all of Raleigh, Harvey Stephens of Angier and Miss Ethel Tyson of Apex.

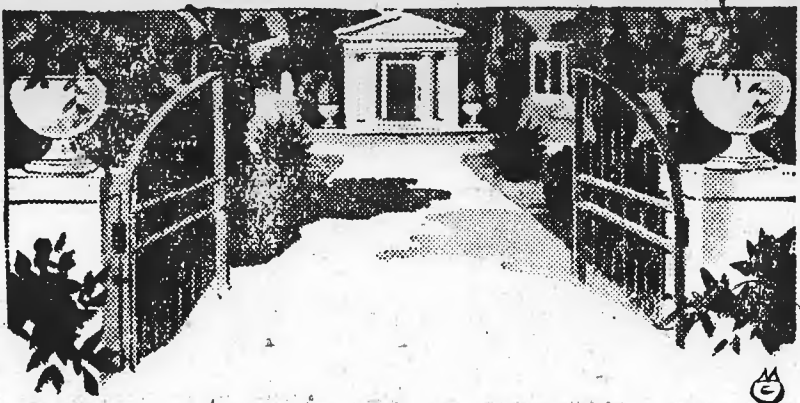

CAMPBELL — JOHN

On Saturday afternoon, October 5, Miss Margaret McRae John of Lumber Bridge and Benjamin Thomas Campbell of Dillon, South Carolina were united in marriage in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lacy John of Lumber Bridge. Rev. G. F. Kirkpatrick officiated.

Stacy Kirkman and Henry M. John lighted the candles. Miss Carrie Brown, pianist, presented a program of nuptial music. "To A Wild Rose" was played while the vows were spoken. At the close of the service Mrs. C. C. Adams sang "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride wore a dress of blue crepe with an orchid corsage. Immediately after the wedding Mr. and Mrs. John entertained at an informal reception.

Guests in the home of Mrs. Luther Seals over the week end were Rev. Hilton Seals of Chapel Hill, Lawrence Seals of Maxton, Mrs. J. W. Bowen, Miss Ruth Bowen and John Walter of Montrose.

COSTUME LOOK FOR MATERNITY

Natural-colored suit in wool mixture weave for mothers-to-be.

Today's mother-to-be, just as every other fashion-conscious woman, plans her wardrobe around one basic costume. This Fall and Winter, such a costume can be equally right for day and after-dark, simply because of its soft, dressy look. An example is the New York suit pictured, in a natural color weave combining wool with a small amount of fur. Tiny gold bar buttons are an extra, bright note. Talk this new season about more fabric naturally applies to maternity clothes, too. Such jackets as the style shown are all-around flatters, flaring gracefully in front and back, and detailed with generous pockets. The skirt beneath has an easy flare, and, of course, becoming length. Its full-length box pleat extends from an adjustable waistline. Expectant mothers who feel their best in suits, and who can have more than one, will also want one of Fall's casual styles. Several New York maternity collections feature them in wool gabardine and corduroy. The flare-back jackets designed to be worn with or without a belt.
