This sprightly youngster is watching the old gentleman do a bit of carving. The intencness of his observation and his manifest interest indicate an alert mind, eager to learn.

Soon the little boy will be carving and putting the knowledge gained to practical use. Thus children learn by observing the techniques of their elders.

If men and women would pay more attention to those keen little eyes that are forever watching and imitating, we would soon build a better race. For children copy our moral and spiritual attitudes as well as our practical methods.

If we practice or condone falsehood and dishonesty, they are apt to be false and dishonest too. If we lack faith in God and religion, they too are apt to be faithless.

We should so live that children may imbibe from us not only the practical techniques of life, but also the finer art of spiritual living—that they may be able to fulfill the Lord's requirement, "to do justly, love mercy and walk humbly before thy God."

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH.

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend and support the church of his choice. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church on Sunday and read your Bible daily.
