LEGION AUXILIARY VISITS PATIENTS

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary, who are on the hospital committee, and who visited the Veteran hospital in Fayetteville Tuesday were Mrs. R. B. Lewis, Mrs. R. A. Matheson, Mrs. Younger Snead, Mrs. A. L. O'Brian and Mrs. Herbert McKeithan.

The Auxiliary's project for the month of December is to give gifts for the gift shop at the hospital. Patients there may select any gift from the shop to send to their people for Christmas. The ladies also visited the patients and will buy gifts, wrap them and mail them for any patients who can't do their own shopping. They also write cards and letters for those who are unable to do so.

On Friday afternoon of this week Mrs. Israel Mann and Mrs. Alfred Cole will take two cars of members to the hospital. At this time they will visit the wards and take 23 indoor gardens, which are made and given by the Raeford Garden club. They will also give patients cigarettes donated by the Legion Auxiliary.

Miss Jean Graham of Asheville spent the week end here with her mother, Mrs. J. D. Graham.

Mrs. W. L. McFadyen spent last week in Burlington with Mrs. Bob Gammon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. McLean had as their week end guest, Mrs. Walter David of Kingstree, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. William Faulk spent Sunday in Fairmont.

SHILOH AUXILIARY HAS PARTY

During the evening the members drew names and Christmas gifts were exchanged, after which the hostesses served refreshments.

MRS. UPCHURCH SHOWN COURTESY

Mrs. Bill Upchurch, who will move into her new home soon, was shown an attractive courtesy last Thursday evening when Mrs. Clyde Upchurch, Jr. entertained at her home.

Arrangements of fall berries made an attractive setting for the three tables of bingo, which were in play. The winner of each game was awarded a prize. The climax of the evening was reached when Mrs. Upchurch won the grand prize and was presented with a shower of lovely miscellaneous gifts for her new home from the hostess and guests.

The hostess served a sweet course with coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Tapp have moved into the downstairs apartment in the home of Miss Ida McLaughlin.

Mrs. Lillian Oliver returned Monday after spending several days in Durham.

Mrs. I. H. Shankle and Eli Shankle left Tuesday for Albemarle to attend the funeral of Mrs. Shankle's brother, Pearl Burris.

MISS KING BRIDE-ELECT, HONORED

Miss Marcelle King, whose marriage to Noble D. Stanley, Jr. of Fayetteville, will be solemnized at Tabernacle church on Christmas Day, was honored last Wednesday night at a miscellaneous shower given by Miss Lucille Grooms, assisted by her sister, Mrs. R. C. Melvin, Jr., at the Rockfish community house.

A color scheme of green and white was used in the decorations. The mantles at either end of the building and the windows were artistically decorated with beautiful green holly interspersed with green and white candles. Guests were seated at tables centered with holly and burning tapers. The honoree was presented a corsage of white carnations by the hostess. After several games and contests the bride-to-be found herself at a table where she was literally snowed under with beautiful and useful gifts.

Candy and nuts were served throughout the evening and after the gifts were opened and displayed bride's cakes and coffee were served.

Those attending from Fayetteville other than Mrs. Melvin were Mrs. N. D. Stanley, Sr., mother of the groom-elect, Mrs. L. N. King, aunt of the bride-elect. Approximately 25 guests were present.

UDC MEETS WITH MRS. McLAUCHLIN

The Raeford Chapter of the U. D. C. met Wednesday, December 3, at the home of Mrs. J. W. McLaughlin.

Mrs. W. B. McLaughlin, president, presided. After the devotional and routine business Mrs. William McFadyen introduced Mrs. George Bullock of Red Springs, who is district director of the U. D. C. Mrs. Bullock discussed plans for the coming year. She then introduced Mrs. J. A. Love, also of Red Springs, who told of her delightful trip to the general convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy held in Miami, Florida, in November.

Christmas carols were sung by the group, after which the guests and members were invited into the dining room for delicious refreshments served by the hostess.

DOWNER - THROWER INVITATIONS MAILED

Invitations have been mailed to read as follows:

"Mr. and Mrs. John Knox McNeill, Sr. request the honour of your presence at the marriage of their step-sister, Martha Irene Downer to Staff Sergeant Leon Thrower, on Sunday, December the twenty-first, at four o'clock in the afternoon, Raeford Methodist Church, Raeford, North Carolina."

No invitations will be mailed in town but friends of the couple are invited to attend.

HARE - DONATHAN

Miss Doris Donathan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Donathan of Jonesboro, became the bride of Frazier Hampton Hare, son of Mrs. W. H. Hare and the late Mr. Hare of Ashley Heights, Sunday afternoon, December 7, at 3:30 o'clock, at Bennettsville, South Carolina.

The bride chose for her wedding a suit of blue with black accessories, and wore a corsage of red roses.
