YOUR SCHOOL By K. A. MacDonald

Last Monday evening an extension class in Resource-Use education was organized for the Hoke county teachers. Dr. Richard Weaver of the University of North Carolina and the State Resource-Use Commission will conduct the class. The class will meet each Monday afternoon for 16 weeks. Four hours of credit, either undergraduate or graduate will be given for the successful completion of the course. Certification credit will also be given.

Dr. Weaver had made arrangements for aid in putting on the course to be obtained locally from the Farm and home agents, soil, forests and wildlife conservation agents, the FSA, Health Department and Welfare Department. Also various consulants from the state office of the agencies will be brought in from time to time.

The idea behind the course is to assist the teachers from the first grade through the twelth in making use in their work, of local resources and teaching the children the value and need for conserving these resources.

Hoke County has been asked by Dr. Clyde A. Erwin, State Superintendent of Public Instruction to participate in the preparation of a new course of study in health, physial education and saftey. A county committee consisting of H. A. Faircloth, chairman, R. A. Smoak, T. C. Jones and J. W. Turlington has been appointed. Mr. Smoak will head a sub-committee on health, Mr. Jones one on physical education and Mr. Turlington on safety These gentlemen will organize their committees. They will attend a meeting in Fayetteville next Monday afternoon that has been called by Dr. Erwin for all county committees. At this meeting they will be given information as to the type of work and reports that the State Department wishes them to undertake.

The team meets Elizabethtown high here tonight (Thursday) with the kickoff being set for 8:15. This game was scheduled for tomorrow night but was changed due to a fair being held in Elizabethtown tomorrow.

The home team got an early lead last Friday night when Johnny Sinclair blocked a Rowland punt in the first quarter and Buddy Blue covered it in the end zone for the tally. Freeman missed the kick off for the extra point. Also in the first quarter, Bill Niven went through the Rowland line from the 15-yard line for another score. This time Norton hit the line to make the extra point and Hoke High led, 13-0.

In the second quarter Niven passed to Keith on the Rowland 30 and he scampered over for the third and last tally for the home team. A reverse failed for the extra point.

In the third quarter the game was about dog fall, with Rowland a little stronger, if anything. Gulledge did look good, however, on several long runs, but the home team failed to score.

We are sorry to report the death of the mother of W. C. Campbell, principal of the Bowmore school. Principal Campbell has one of the longest terms of public service in Hoke county and has many friends sympathize with him in his loss.

The Raeford Grade school is now ringing the big bell at 8:30 in the morning. The tardy bell rings at 8:35 and any pupil not in his room when the 8:35 bell rings is counted tardy. Principal Turlington requests that parents with children in the Graded school take note of this and cooperate with the faculty in getting pupils to school on time.

The schools, and especially those connected with transportation, regret very much the resignation and leaving of Patrolman Jason Barnes. He has been a never-failing friend of the pupils and especially the bus drivers and those directly charged with the supervision of transportation. He has gone out of his way to be helpful time and time again. We sincerely regret his leaving but just as sincerely wish him success in his new work.

Patrolman Surratt, who takes Mr. Barnes' place, has promised us the same kind of cooperation and help and we are looking forward with genuine pleasure to working with him.

We earnestly request again that all parents watch their children very carefully for any signs of illness. If they show any signs what so ever we request that the parent make sure they are well.
