Mrs. J. H. Blue then presented "North Carolina Poetry," reading illustrative North Carolina poems: "The Old North State" by William Gaston, and others. Continuing North Carolina poetry, Mrs. J. W. McPhaul then read several poems of the narrative type. Mrs. W. B. Heyward concluded the program by giving a quiz of famous quotations.

During the social hour the hostesses served ice cream, cookies, coffee and nuts.

FREDRICK-QUIMBY

Miss Frances A. Quimby, daughter of Mrs. Raymond D. Quimby and the late Mr. Quimby of Bethlehem, New Hampshire and Pinehurst, N. C., became the bride of Kenneth (Buddy) Fredrick of Ashley Heights, in a double ring ceremony solemnized Wednesday, December 22, 1948, at the home of Judge Kennedy at Bennettsville, South Carolina. They were accompanied to Bennettsville by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McBryde.

The couple will make their home with Mr. Fredrick's aunt, Mrs. Maggie McBryde, at Ashley Heights.

MISS McINNIS BRIDE OF EARL JACKSON HARE

Galatia church in Cumberland County was the scene of a very beautiful and impressive semi-formal wedding ceremony last Sunday evening when Miss Mary Catherine McInnis became the bride of Earl Jackson Hare. The Rev. Mr. W. C. Smith of Sylvester, Ga., uncle of the bride, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Greenery and cathedral candles predominated the artistic decorations of the church. Ivy floor baskets of white gladioli and white snapdragons centered the arrangement.

Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. W. C. Smith, pianist, of Sylvester, Georgia. She played "To A Wild Rose," "Narcissus," and "Until." The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride entered the church with her brother, Thomas McInnis, who gave her in marriage. She chose for her wedding a street length dress of pastel blue alpaca crepe, with black accessories and carried a bouquet of white rosebuds.

Mrs. J. E. McInnis of Asheville, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and the only attendant. She wore a street length dress of pink alpaca crepe, identical to that of the bride, with black accessories. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Ernest Green of Aberdeen, the groom's brother-in-law, was best man. Ushers were Dan and Smith McInnis of Raeford, brothers of the bride, Ralph Cothran of Aberdeen, brother-in-law of the groom, and James C. Lentz of Raeford.

The bride's mother was dressed in a dress of black silk crepe with black accessories, and the groom's mother wore a dress of blue silk crepe with black accessories. Both wore corsages of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Hare is the daughter of Mrs. A. A. McInnis and the late Mr. McInnis of Rockfish. She is a graduate of Hoke High school. Since her graduation she has held a responsible position at Fort Bragg.

Mr. Hare is the son of Mrs. W. H. Hare and the late Mr. Hare of Aberdeen. He attended Hoke High school but is a graduate of Aberdeen High school. At present Mr. Hare is conductor on the Railroad bus from Aberdeen to Fayetteville.
