EDUCATIONAL CLUB MEETS

The Educational department of the Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. Lewis Upchurch on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30. All officers were present and an unusually large number of members. Since there was no business of importance, new or old, the chairman, Mrs. H. L. Gatlin, Jr. appointed the program committee for next year's programs, and also a nominating committee, as all present officers go out at the end of this club year.

The program for the afternoon proved most interesting and very instructive. Mrs. A. D. Gore gave a sketch of the life of a nobel prize winner. She read selections and told the source of the prize. Mrs. Tom Cameron gave selections from the literature of China which revealed the philosophy of the Chinese people. Coming at this time when China and its welfare lead in current news, the discourse was well received.

After the program delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Upchurch, assisted by the co-hostesses, Mrs. A. K. Stevens and Mrs. Kerr Stevens.

MORE ABOUT Poor Schools

Recently do their work. Classroom furniture is movable, grouped around a book center and a science center and in other working groups. Lighting is from two sides. The Crow Island School at Winnetka, Ill. is divided into five parts with separate playgrounds for each adjacent to each classroom is an outdoor study. At one side of the spacious campus is a small flagstoned amphitheater.

To make up the backlog and ease new pressures will take a tremendous school building program. Various estimates of cost have been made. Most of them agree that the expenditure of at least 1 billion dollars a year for 10 years is necessary even to make a dent.
