QUEWHIFFLE NEWS

by Mrs. Ralph Cothran

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moody spent a few days last week visiting in Albemarle. They went to attend a funeral of a very close friend.

Miss Doris Robertson of Wake Forest spent the week end here with her parents.

Miss Thelma Cothran spent the week end in Raleigh visiting in the home of her sister, Mrs. Floyd Price.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Calloway and children of Hamlet spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Sinclair.

Mrs. Roy Mitchell and son are spending a few days this week at Merry Oaks with Mrs. Mitchell's sister.

Circle No. 2 of Shiloh Presbyterian church has donated several dozen stainless steel knives for use at the Montrose community house.

The women of the Church, Shiloh, will meet next Monday at the home of Mrs. Lena Womble of Ashley Heights.

Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Hiatt and children spent the week end at the home of Dr. Hiatt's parents in Elkin.

RECENT BRIDE HONORED
A shower was given at the Ashley Heights community house Friday night in honor of Mrs. E. J. Hare, recent bride. The house had been beautifully decorated for the occasion with spring flowers and suggestions of Valentine. The bride was given a pretty corsage on arrival. Games were played with prizes going to Mrs. Talmadge Bobbitt, Mrs. Alice Almond, and Mrs. Robert Strother. Mrs. Haire was blindfolded and told to pin the tail on the donkey. Instead she was led to a shower of miscellaneous gifts. Refreshments were very much enjoyed.

The McCain Garden club met at the home of Mrs. H. S. Willis Friday, February 11. Plans for the coming benefit card party were discussed, and officers elected. Mrs. W. M. Peck, was chosen president. Mrs. W. C. Byrd, vice-president and Mrs. F. L. Eubanks, secretary-treasurer. The bird house contest sponsored by the club for the Ashmont school will close March 9 and entries will be judged on that day. The contest this year will be in two sections - one group comprising the upper four grades will compete and the lower three grades will compete. Prizes will be awarded for each of the best three of each group.

Mrs. Willis served coffee, candied fruit, nuts and cheese and crackers, beaten biscuits and ham.

Mrs. C. B. Romeyn, Fayetteville, was a week end guest at the home of her brother, Dr. W. C. Byrd, of McCain.
