MARCH WINDS

What joy it brings to children to feel the strong March winds blowing!

Soon the skies will be dotted with tiny, colored kites, and grown-ups too will recall the thrills and pleasures of this sport.

Man has always had a fascination for flying. Ancient myths and stories reveal man's desire to soar into the heavens, and the art of flying kites dates back four centuries before the Christian era.

The enormous interest in modern aviation is not wholly due to its economic and commercial values, for there is a strange enchantment in sailing off into the heavens, in the desire of attaining great heights.

There is a kindred hope in the hearts of men. It is the fundamental desire for a higher, more exalted life hereafter. The Christian religion promises us a heavenly home if only our lives here on earth will follow the teachings of Christ. Let us go to Church this Sunday, and every Sunday, and learn the way to an eternal life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
