The CULPRIT

Most people, at some time in their lives have found themselves in the predicament of this little boy. He has been caught red-handed raiding his mother's jam. His offense is not unforgiveable, but he is learning the hard way that people's sins find them out.

Guilt and fear have dogged man's footsteps throughout the ages. They are the greatest of all enemies of human happiness.

Wise people endeavor to live in such a manner that they have a clear conscience with no feelings of remorse and with nothing to fear. Religion helps a person to live that kind of life.

The little boy in the picture must be taught that a good conscience is better than jam. He must learn to put truth, honesty, and right above mere appetite and pleasure.

Religion, as embodied in the teachings of the Church, banishes guilt and fear and promotes happiness and peaceful living.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Sunday Numbers 32:20-24
