

Socials-Personal Items . . .

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY MEETS

Mrs. Bert Brown, Mrs. Herbert McLean and Miss Reba Roberts entertained the American Legion Auxiliary at its regular meeting on Monday evening, at the Roberts home.

Mrs. A. D. Gore presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Younger Snead. Much business came up. Plans were made to decorate the graves on National Memorial Day and to sell poppies on May 28. Mrs. Bob Staley, who with her husband, Sgt. Staley, have an apartment with Mrs. C. H. Giles, was then introduced to the auxiliary. Mrs. Staley, who is blind, made a most interesting talk on the eye-seeing school in New Jersey and other phases of her education. She read an excerpt from "Cheaper by the Dozen" out of her current Reader's Digest printed in Braille. She is a bridge enthusiast and had with her a deck of Kem cards in Braille. After the meeting adjourned the hostesses served refreshments.

FRIENDS ENJOY OF UPCHURCH HOSPITALITY

Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Upchurch, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Upchurch accepted their invitation to a fish fry Friday evening. This was to have been held at Clyde's pond but on account of inclement weather was changed to the Upchurch airport.

Tables with seats for the large number present were placed in the hangar. The supper was served buffet style, and it was a most delicious and generous one. Fish, cornbread, hush puppies, potato salad, slaw, coffee and cookies were served. Plates were replenished and cups refilled with steaming hot coffee. The occasion was a most happy one was evident by the enthusiastic comments made by all present.

WEDDING BREAKFAST FOR BRIDAL PARTY

A wedding breakfast, appointments of which were lovely in every detail, was given Saturday morning in honor of the Peele-Wyly bridal party by Mrs. Lawrence McNeill. A variety of garden flowers, attractively arranged were used in the living room and hall.

The dining room table, covered with a cutwork cloth, was centered with a beautiful bridal arrangement of all white flowers. Tables seating four each were placed in living room and dining room. These were centered with miniature flower arrangements of varied hues. The bride's place was marked with a nosegay of white rosebuds and a gift of silver in her pattern; other places were marked with bridal markers.

The delicious breakfast was served buffet style. There were twenty present. These were the bride party and members of the two families, out-of-town guests, and their hostesses.

MRS. K. A. MACDONALD CLUB HOSTESS

On Saturday afternoon after the Wyly-Peele wedding Mrs. Kenneth Macdonald entertained her bridge club. Mrs. R. A. Matheson and Mrs. Tommie Upchurch were those present in addition to club members. Mrs. Marshall Thomas won the club high score and Mrs. Upchurch the visitor's prize. The hostess served a most tempting salad plate after the game.

LAURINBURG FLOWER SHOW

A general invitation has been given to flower lovers in Raeford and vicinity to attend the flower show which will be held in Laurinburg, May 5th and 6th. This show will be held in the Presbyterian Hut and is sponsored by the Scotch Gardeners.

SENIOR GIRLS ENTERTAINED

The girls of the senior class of Hoke High school were guests of the Business, and Professional Women on Tuesday evening for supper. Tables were placed banquet style in the high school lunchroom. Gladioli and other spring flowers were placed in attractive arrangements down the length of the tables. Each senior's place was marked with a dainty nosegay, also favors for each, a box of note paper.

Mrs. Retha Howell Ashe welcomed the girls an introduced each one to the assemblage. Miss Bettie Benner responded for the seniors. Miss Louise Blue introduced the business women. Each woman responded with a short talk, telling what business and profession she was in.

Mrs. W. R. Barrington, soloist, and Mrs. Clyde Upchurch, accompanist, were introduced.

A delicious supper in several courses was served under the direction of Mrs. Lucy Smith.

After supper a contest, "Penny For Your Thoughts," was most entertaining. Miss Hilda Jordan won the prize for giving the most correct answers.

MRS. WARNER, RECENT BRIDE, HONOREE

Mrs. Jimmy Warner, recent bride, was honoree at a party given by Mrs. Neil Senter at her home on Friday evening. Lovely arrangements of spring flowers and potted plants decorated the home of Mrs. Senter. Upon arrival the honoree was presented an all white corsage.

Two tables were arranged for bingo and prizes were given the winner of each game. Several contests were also enjoyed with prizes going to the winners.

Mrs. Warner was presented a gift of crystal in her chosen pattern after which refreshments were served.

DINNER PARTY FOR WRINGER OFFICIALS

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Thomas gave a very lovely dinner party Friday evening honoring the official personnel of the Wringer Company, now vacationing at Highland Pines Inn, Southern Pines. The President of the company and his wife and Mr. and Mrs. George Keltie and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fontaine, all of Woonsocket, Rhode Island, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas. These Rhode Island people were most enthusiastic in their praise of the South and Southern hospitality, especially that extended to them in Raeford.

BARBECUE AT STEVENS FARM

The pastor and family and all officers of the Raeford Presbyterian church and their wives were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Stevens and Mr. and Mrs. Kerr Stevens on Tuesday evening. They gathered at the pond on the Stevens farm and were served a long-to-be remembered barbecue supper with all the things that go with it to make a delicious meal. It proved to be most delightful occasion and one that was marked by good fellowship.

WEDNESDAY CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. GIBSON

The Wednesday afternoon bridge club was entertained last week by Mrs. W. T. Gibson. A dessert was served before the game to the club members present and to Mrs. Colon Scarborough, a guest of the club. Mrs. T. B. Lester received the club prize for making high score, Mrs. Bill Howell was given a consolation gift for low score and Mrs. Scarborough was remembered with a gift.

SHIRLEY MANN HONORS GUEST

Miss Muriel Kramer of Wallace, week-end guest of Miss Shirley Mann, was honoree at a weiner roast given by Miss Mann last Friday evening. A number of the younger set gathered in the Mann backyard and enjoyed roasting weiners, which were served with accessories.

NEIGHBORHOOD DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Blue, Mr. and Mrs. Younger Snead, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McNeill, Mr. and Mrs. Neill A. McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Foreman of Elizabeth City were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Thomas Saturday evening. A very delicious meal was served at eight o'clock with covers being laid for twelve.

GLEE CLUB PLEASURES CONGREGATION

The Flora Macdonald Glee club, under the direction of Dean Ruelor, delighted the congregation at the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. Miss Mary Raye Freeman of Raeford was soloist. After the church service the girls were served sandwiches, punch and home made cake by the Presbyterian Seniors. There were about eighty young people present.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. William Lentz announce the birth of a daughter, Elizabeth Jean, Friday, April 22, at Moore County hospital.

Mrs. Lentz was the former Miss Ailene Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pope announce the birth of a daughter, Elizabeth Anne, Sunday, April 24, at Moore County hospital. Mrs. Pope was formerly Miss Clara Byrd of Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Garrett of Roxboro announce the birth of a son, William E. Jr., Saturday, April 23. Mrs. Garrett was formerly Miss Almeade Gentry.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ellis, a son, Robert Edward, April 12, at Highsmith hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bullard announce the birth of a daughter, Dorothy Magina, Saturday, April 23.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Campbell of Charlotte a son, Robert William, Wednesday, April 20.

Edward McGirt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edison McGirt, was taken to Pittman hospital yesterday morning with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Oliver Wyly, who were married Saturday afternoon, stopped in Columbia, S. C. for supper en route South on their wedding trip. While they were having supper someone broke into their car and stole all Mrs. Wyly's clothes.

Mrs. Lewis Upchurch has been quite sick with flu all of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Upchurch attended the informal reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bullock in Maxton on Wednesday afternoon of this week. This was the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Bullock.

Mrs. Charlie Pendergrass, who has been sick for two weeks, is a patient in Moore County hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Nixon have moved into their new home on the Turnpike road.

Dr. and Mrs. Clyde Krug of Pittsburg, Pa. are visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Gatlin, Jr.

June Johnson, Franklin Niven, Martin Webb and Kenneth Clark left yesterday for Florida on a fishing trip. They were accompanied as far as Thomasville, Ga. by Mrs. June Johnson and children, who will visit relatives there while the men are in Florida. They will return to Raeford Sunday.

Mrs. W. J. Coates has been confined to her home since last Friday with an attack of virus pneumonia.

Mrs. Marie Benson spent the week end with relatives in Henderson. She was accompanied home Sunday by her mother, Mrs. J. M. Christman, for a visit.

Ken and Neill Adams McNeill of State College spent the week end with their parents. They were accompanied by a friend and classmate of Neill's, Jimmy McLean.

WYLY - PEELE

The marriage of Miss Nancy McNair Peele, daughter of E. L. Peele and the late Mrs. Peele of Raeford, to Francis Oliver Wyly, son of Mrs. Julia Parker Wyly of Montreat and the late Rev. William J. Wyly of York, S. C., took place Saturday afternoon, April 23, at 3:30 o'clock, in the Raeford Presbyterian church. Rev. H. K. Holland, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, assisted by Rev. W. B. Heyward, performed the double ring ceremony.

Altar decorations were simple and tasteful arrangements of flowers in all white with ferns. Miss Alice Walker, organist, played a prelude of nuptial music. Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, by Wagner was played as professional, To A Wild Rose and O Perfect Love, during the ceremony and Wedding March by Mendelssohn as a recessional.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a pink tailored suit with matching accessories. She carried a white satin prayer book, marked with a white orchid showered with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Mary Peele, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a suit of navy blue with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses and forget-me-nots.

The Rev. H. K. Holland of Marietta, Georgia, was best man. Ushers were Jephtha Peele of Greensboro and Jim Williamson of Raeford.

Immediately after the ceremony an informal reception was given at the bride's home. Mrs. Tom Cameron directed guests to the dining room where Miss Mattie Peele served punch assisted by Mrs. J. L. McNeill. The dining room table had a centerpiece of white flowers with lighted candles on either side. Mixed garden flowers were used in living room and hall.

The couple left for a short wedding trip before going to their future home in Montreat. The bride wore for travel a blue suit with magnolia trim and all navy accessories, and white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Wyly attended Montreat college and Vassar Brothers Hospital where she graduated in 1945. Since then she has held a position at Moore County hospital at Pinehurst.

Mr. Wyly attended Biltmore Junior college and University of Kansas. He was a member of the armed forces and spent three years overseas. He now holds a position with the Mountain Retreat Association in Montreat, where the couple will make their home.

Out of town guests for the wedding were Mrs. A. D. Dillon, maternal aunt of the bride, from Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. Jephtha Peele of Greensboro, Mrs. Roy Cameron of Dunn and the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Holland and Nancy Holland of Marietta, Ga.

Mrs. Grace Linney of Hidenite arrived last Thursday for a visit in the home of her sisters, Mrs. J. P. Smith and Mrs. D. S. Currie.

COUPLES CLUB ENTERTAINED

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Lester entertained the couples club at its meeting last week. There were two tables in play with Mrs. Bill Lamont a guest of the club. Mrs. Charles Morrison won high score prize for ladies and Neill Senter for the men. A dessert course was served after the game.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Williams of Hamlet were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Williams Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Baker returned home Friday after several days in Pine Level with her father, D. B. Oliver.

Miss Marion Maxwell spent the week end in Laurinburg with her aunt, Mrs. A. L. McKenzie.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Amos and child, who have been making their home in Red Springs, moved into the new house recently completed by Julian Wright and located near the home of Sgt. and Mrs. Ed Willis yesterday.

Ebb Burdison of Aberdeen spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. W. R. Barrington.

Eddie Morton, who has been employed in Atlanta, Ga. for the past several months, has returned to Raeford and is with his family at Hotel Raeford.

Mrs. Lock Campbell spent last Friday in Raleigh where she attended the annual meeting of the Practical Nurse Association.

Mrs. G. B. Rowland is leaving today to attend the meeting of the N. C. Library Association at the hotel Washington Duke in Durham, which is being held today and tomorrow. While there Mrs. Rowland will visit relatives in Hillsboro and in Durham.

Mrs. George Freeman and Mrs. H. A. Freeman wish to express their thanks to the Raeford folks for their kindnesses and interest shown them during the recent illness of their mother, Mrs. M. C. Long of Laurinburg. Mrs. Long has been seriously ill for the past two months, but is reported to be recuperating nicely, and is now able to be up part of the time.

Mrs. H. E. Stinchcomb of Black Mountain arrived Sunday for a visit here with relatives.

Word has been received from Mrs. Lewis Hart that she and her mother arrived safely in San Francisco. Mrs. Hart sailed yesterday for Okinawa. Mrs. Stuart spent several days with Mrs. Melvin Vann in Berkeley, California, before taking a plane that will bring her home.

Miss Lana Terrell, who has been employed in Laurinburg for some time, has returned to her home here and accepted a position with the Para Thread Co. of N. C.

John Scott Poole, of ECTC Greenville, spent the week end with his parents.

INFORMAL COFFEE

Friends of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Holland dropped in at Mrs. McLaughlin's Saturday evening about 8:30 to greet and say goodbye to Mr. Holland. Mrs. McLaughlin was prepared to welcome any who called. They were invited into the dining room where cake and coffee were served. Mrs. Heyward poured coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Dixon and sons and William Clark spent Sunday in Oxford with Mr. Dixon's father, W. B. Dixon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McBryde and Johnny, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McBryde and family visited Mrs. W. J. McBryde's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Nichols in Kenly Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie McDiarmid and children, Mrs. John L. Maultsby and children spent the week end at Crescent Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow McLean of Clinton were guests of W. A. McLean Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cole had their week end guests Mrs. W. J. Langston of Kinston and Z. R. Langston of Akron, Ohio.

Mrs. Ruth Shaw Jay, who has spent the past several months here with her son, Mrs. R. Lee Bethune, had a week for Raleigh where she has accepted a position.

Raeford THEATRE

Open At 5 P. M. Daily

Thursday - Friday

El Paso

John Payne - Gail Russell
George "Gabby" Hayes
Sterling Hayden

Also Latest News Events

Saturday

Eldorado Pass

Charles Starrett
Smiley Burnette

ALSO

Fighting Back

Sunday

Shows 3 & 9 P. M.

Monday - Tuesday

Command Decision

Clark Gable - Walter Pidgeon
Van Johnson - Brian Donlevy

Wednesday

Sinister Journey

William "Hopalong Cassidy"
Boyd

FOR A
Cool Kitchen
THIS SUMMER . . .

GET AN AUTOMATIC

Electric Range

Remember how hot that kitchen of yours was last summer? These hot days are just around the corner again. Now is the time to get a modern automatic electric range and enjoy a COOL kitchen this summer . . . as well as all the other time and work saving advantages of electric cooking. See your dealer today!

CAROLINA POWER & LIGHT COMPANY

You Are Cordially Invited

To Worship

with us

Each Sunday Morning

Morning Worship - 11:00 A. M.

at the

Raeford Presbyterian Church

REV. W. B. HEYWARD