BOY PROBLEMS

The problems of boyhood often seem trivial and inconsequential to their elders. Adults are apt to reason that these childish problems will eventually solve themselves.

But the problems of childhood are tremendously important, even when they seem trivial in themselves. For in seeking their solution the child forms habits of thought and action which later may influence more important decisions.

If a boy's early training is such that he seeks his solutions within the framework of truth, justice, and right, he will probably stick to this pattern later when larger problems arise. If he resorts to deceit and unfairness, these may become a fixed tendency.

That is why parents should teach their children that God and religion and right are the only safe guides in meeting the problems and perplexities of life. A boy and girl so reared can usually be trusted to do right things and make right decisions.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
