Many mothers and fathers overlook the long-range meaning of parenthood. This beautiful mother, cuddling her little boy, may not realize it, but she is holding an armful of tomorrow.

This child of her heart belongs to another generation—the one that is to follow. It is her high privilege to rear him and train him for that future life.

If she thinks merely of the happiness the little fellow has brought into her life and home, she has missed the point entirely. Her main thought should be of what he may mean to his own generation and the world, and of his own future happiness.

It is a sobering thought that the next generation is being molded like clay in the hands of the present generation of parents.

Religion is an essential element in the training of a child. Teach him to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly before God, and he is not likely to stray into dangerous paths.

The Church can give valuable aid to parents in fulfilling this duty.

HOLY BIBLE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of the Church and the world. (4) For the sake of his community and nation. He needs his moral and material strength. Let us go to the church regularly and read the Bible.
