MRS. McGOOGAN SHOWERS THE BRIDES-ELECT

After so very many parties in their honor Misses Elsie Upchurch and Faye Baker thought there could hardly be anything new under the sun, but just that was left for Mrs. John McGoogan to have. On Friday evening at eight o'clock Mrs. McGoogan entertained 16, these being special friends and immediate members of the two families of the honorees. Punch was served at the beginning of the evening by Mrs. Archie Howard and the girls served themselves later on. Four tables were arranged for progressive hearts. Nougats marked the honorees places and score cards carried out the bridal motif.

In the game Miss Jessie Bright Ferguson made high score and Miss Leonora Currie won the floating prize. Mrs. McGoogan then read an invitation in rhyme which invited the girls into the sun room. Here was the surprise and "the new under the sun." Two large pots, one in one corner and one in another were literally filled with kitchen gadgets and utensils. Each pot of gifts was a gift from the hostess to Elsie and Faye. Attached to pretty aprons in the pots were loose leaf recipe books; the first recipe was: How To Preserve: Love, and the second, How To Make a Home. There were many wrapped packages containing a number of things. When these were unwrapped the girls put them in decorated orange crates to take home. The girls were enthusiastic over the shower and Mrs. McGoogan's hospitality.

HOKE-DUNDARRACH

The following invitations have been issued, but everybody is expected to be at this wedding; invitation or no invitation.

Mr. and Mrs. Mildouson request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Johnnie Hoke to Mr. Billy Willy Dundarrach, on Thursday, July 7, at 8 o'clock in the evening, Mildouson School, Dundarrach, North Carolina.

Mrs. Lawrence Poole went to Liberty Saturday and to Durham Sunday to see her sister. Miss Madge Coble, who was a patient there. Miss Coble returned to her home near Liberty Sunday and Mrs. Poole came back to Raeford Monday afternoon.

LUNCHEON HONORS MISS UPCHURCH IN RALEIGH TUESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Cothran entertained at luncheon Tuesday at the Colonial Pines Hotel honoring Miss Elsie Upchurch, bride-elect of Raeford, whose marriage to Robert Samuel McCleskey will take place on July 8.

The centerpiece was a flower arrangement of pink and white gladioli in a silver bowl. The pink and white color scheme was carried out in place cards and mint cups.

A corsage and a gift of silver in her pattern were presented Miss Upchurch.

A three-course luncheon was served to the following: The hosts and honoree; Mrs. C. E. Upchurch, mother of the bride-elect; Mesdames T. B. Upchurch, J. S. Johnson, R. B. Lewis, C. E. Upchurch, Jr., Thomas Caulk, Paul Dickson, E. Watson Lawhon, John McGoogan; Misses Mollie Cameron and Leonora Currie, all of Raeford.

MRS. HARVEY COLE HOSTESS

Mrs. Harvey Cole was hostess last Wednesday evening when she had some of her close friends in for a most delicious summertime supper. Covers were laid for 12 at three tables on the porch. After supper the guests played the games of their choice. There was one table playing bridge, one rook, and one set back. Those enjoying Mrs. Cole's hospitality were: Mrs. Belton Wright, Mrs. J. B. McLeod, Mrs. Kate McPhaul, Mrs. Carlton Niven, Mrs. Johnny Hinnant, Mrs. Irvin Stanton, Misses Sarah and Marguerite Stephens, Jessie Bright Ferguson, Grace Carter, Louise Blue, Sarah Conoly.

B&PW CLUB MEETS

The Raeford Business and Professional Women's club held their regular monthly meeting at the Hoke High school lunchroom Tuesday evening. Mrs. C. H. Giles, president, presided over the business session during which time she and Miss Louise Blue made reports on their trip to Atlantic Beach last week end where they attended the annual convention of the B&PW club.

Mrs. J. H. Austin has returned from Charlotte where she underwent a major operation at the Presbyterian hospital.

MRS. WILLIS AND MISS BAKER HONOR THEIR COUSIN

Miss Katherine Baker of Ashboro and Mrs. Clarence Willis honored their cousin, Miss Faye Baker, on Saturday afternoon with a delightfully informal coca-cola party. This was given at the home of Miss Baker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Baker. The honoree and Miss Elsie Upchurch were given a corsage each of gardenias which they wore. Mixed summer flowers were tastefully used in the rooms in which the girls gathered. Coca-colas with many tempting accessories were served and the hostesses presented Miss Baker a gift of china and Miss Elsie Upchurch a gift of crystal.

COUPLES CLUB ENTERTAINED

The couples club was entertained last Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Upchurch, Jr. There were three tables in play with Mr. and Mrs. Archie Howard, Misses Mollie Cameron and Miss Agnes Mae Johnson, guests other than club members. Miss Mollie Cameron won the guest prize, Neil Senter the club prize for men and Mrs. T. B. Lester, club prize for ladies. A most refreshing ice course was served after the game.

MISS UPCHURCH AND BAKER SHARE HONORS AT LUNCHEON

Covers were laid for twelve at a very lovely luncheon given by Mrs. A. L. O'Brian on Thursday at one o'clock in honor of Misses Elsie Upchurch and Faye Baker. Corsages marked the places of the brides-elect and other places were marked with bridal cards. The twelve seated at the tables were: Miss Elsie Upchurch and her mother, Mrs. Clyde Upchurch, Miss Faye Baker and her mother, Mrs. Walter Baker, Mrs. J. F. Jordan and Miss Hilda Jordan, mother and sister of Miss Baker's fiancé, Mrs. Tommie Caulk, Mrs. Clyde Upchurch, Jr., Miss Phyllis Baker, Miss Mildred Oliver, Misses Mollie Cameron and Leonora Currie. A delicious course luncheon was served. After lunch there were three rounds of bingo, with Misses Phyllis Baker, Hilda Jordan and winning the prizes. Mrs. O'Brian and Miss Mildred Oliver winning the prizes. Mrs. O'Brian gave Elsie and Faye gifts of silver.

MISS CAMPBELL BRIDE OF ALFREDO TOLAR, JR.

Miss Mildred Christeen Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel James Campbell, and Alfredo Tolar, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfredo Tolar of Lumber Bridge, were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening, June 25, at eight-thirty o'clock in the Raeford Presbyterian church. The Rev. William B. Heyward, pastor of the bride, officiated. Miss Alice Walker, organist, and Robert Gatlin, soloist, presented a program of wedding music.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an original gown of white slipper satin, featuring an off-shoulder bertha with a marquisette yoke. The sleeves tapered to calla lily points over the hands. Her bouffant skirt extended into a circular train, and her finger-tip veil of illusion fell from a bandeau of satin. She carried a cascade bouquet of white summer flowers centered with a purple orchid.

Mrs. Glen Collinson of Opa Locka, Florida, was her sister's only attendant. She was attired in a gown of aqua taffeta, fashioned similar to the bride's. She carried a nosegay of mixed pastel shades, and wore flowers in her hair to match.

Little Miss Pat Currie, cousin of the bride and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Currie of Red Springs, was the flower girl. She wore a dress of pink taffeta, and carried a basket of mixed summer flowers. Tommy Mercer, young son of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Mercer of Lumberton and cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Stewart Tolar of Maxton was his brother's best man. Ushers were Dan Campbell, Jr. of Opa Locka, Florida, brother of the bride, Tommy Tolar, brother of the bridegroom, Jimmy Conoly and Jim Maxwell.

After a short wedding trip the bridal couple will make their home in Red Springs, where Mr. Tolar is employed. Mrs. Tolar will continue her work with the Bank of Raeford.

Since the announcement of this engagement Mrs. Tolar has been the recipient of many social courtesies. These began with a lovely party by Mrs. Ed McNeill and Mrs. R. B. Lewis at the home of Mrs. Lewis and continued up to the day of the wedding. The final pretty affair was the:

CAKE CUTTING

Mrs. John Walker, Mrs. A. L. O'Brian and Mrs. W. B. Heyward entertained the wedding party immediately following the rehearsal Friday night. This was at the Manse, the living and dining rooms of which had been made lovely for the occasion. An all white flower arrangements was on one end of the dining room table with lighted candles in three branched crystal candelabra. The beautiful three tiered wedding cake was at the far end. After the bride and groom elect cut the first slice the cake was served with ice cream in wedding bells of green and white. About thirty were present, these being the members of the wedding party, the family and out-of-town friends.

COCA-COLA PARTY AT MRS. MARIAN GATLIN'S

On Friday morning Mrs. Neil Senter and Mrs. Marian Gatlin honored the three very popular and much entertained brides-elect; Miss Mildred Campbell, now Mrs. Tolar, who was married Saturday night, Miss Faye Baker, who will be married to Riley Jordan this evening, and Miss Elsie Upchurch who will wed Robert McCleskey on July 8. The girls, their mothers and friends were invited for 10 o'clock. The porch, living room and dining room looked pretty with many lovely flowers. The honorees were given corsages, which they wore. The dining room table was covered with a cloth of Irish linen cutwork. White glads, white roses and snapdragons with lace fern and gypsophila made a centerpiece. Party sandwiches, confections, salted nuts and other dainty accessories were placed on the table and the guests served themselves. Iced coca-colas were served. In the games of bingo Mrs. Lennon, Mrs. Caulk, Miss Mollie Cameron, Miss Elsie Upchurch and Miss Leonora Currie won the prizes. All the honorees were given gifts of silver.

LUNCHEON HONORING MISS FAYE BAKER

One of the pretty affairs honoring Miss Faye Baker was the luncheon given at Hotel Raeford the day before her wedding. At this time Mrs. M. T. Jordan of Fairmont, Mrs. Charles Randall of Kinston and Miss Hilda Jordan were hostesses. The luncheon was served at 1 o'clock in the private upstairs dining room and was a most appetizing meal. Covers were laid at small tables. Each table was centered with miniature brides' bouquets grouped together making a lovely centerpiece. At the conclusion of the luncheon each guest was given a bouquet lifted from the centerpiece as a favor. Miss Baker's corsage, the gift of the hostess was a very lovely one. She was also given a gift of silver.

The guests list included members of the wedding party and the immediate family. They were: Miss Faye Baker, honoree, Mrs. Walter Baker, Misses Phyllis Baker, Mildred Oliver, Leonora Currie, Mollie Cameron, Agnes Mae Johnson, Elsie Upchurch, Katherine Baker, Mrs. J. F. Jordan, Mrs. Paul Dezerne, of Raeford, Miss Sarah Fleming of Raeford, Miss Catherine Campbell of Buie's Creek, Miss Annalee McLamb of Benson, Mrs. Johnnie Gardner of Lumber Bridge, Mrs. David Parnell of St. Pauls, Mrs. Frank Skinner of Smithfield.

WOODMEN CIRCLE MEETS

The Supreme Forest Woodmen circle met Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Woodmen Hall. This was a special practice meeting and Mrs. Ruby Conoly, president, presided. Mrs. Verna Stanton won the jack pot. The Supreme Woodmen Circle meets the first and third Tuesdays in each month.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hendrix had as their week end guests Mrs. Hendrix's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Hinson and children of Kannapolis and Miss Nadine Gragg of Boone. Miss Gragg remained to spend this week with her sister.

BRIDGE PARTY HONORS MISS FAYE BAKER

Miss Mollie Cameron was bridge hostess in honor of Miss Faye Baker on Thursday evening. Two tables were arranged for bridge in the summer house at the Cameron home. A color scheme of pink and green was most effectively used in the appointments. From a bowl of lime punch placed on a table, you entered the supper room. Guests served themselves without the evening. The table in the center of the room was covered with a pink and green cloth and centered with a long arrangement of large pale pink glads and gypsophila. Miniature nosegays of vari-colored baby's breath were attached to the score cards. Miss Phyllis Baker won the high score prize in the bridge game. Other guests joined the party after the bridge game and were served a pretty and delicious ice course. Cherry ice cream, cakes in shape of calla-lilies and individual cup cakes, all pink, were served. The hostess presented her honoree with china and remembered Misses Mildred Campbell and Elsie Upchurch with gifts.

BRIDES-ELECT HONORED BY MRS BENTON THOMAS

Mrs. Benton Thomas honored Misses Elsie Upchurch and Faye Baker on Wednesday afternoon with one of the prettiest of the informal parties given during this truly "bridal season." About 20 guests, including Miss Mildred Campbell, bride of last Saturday evening, very close friends, and immediate members of the families of the honorees were invited for five o'clock. Mrs. Thomas's living room was cool and inviting and unusually pretty with arrangements of beautiful garden flowers.

The dining room table was covered with a full length cloth and centered with all white flowers. White candles, lighted, were in three branched crystal candelabra placed diagonally on the table. From silver trays at either end of the table ice cream and cake were served. Mrs. Clyde Upchurch, seated at one end of the table, and cream and Mrs. Walter Baker seated at the opposite end of the table. Misses Upchurch and Baker were each given a silver pie server and Miss Mildred Campbell was remembered with crystal goblets.
