A kitten has all the time in the world. She might as well waste some of it trying to do the impossible.

But man doesn't have all the time in the world. He has a brief span of years in which to achieve his life's aims. Man can't afford to waste some of those years—and strength and vitality as well—trying to accomplish what is impracticable.

One of religion's great services to mankind has been its revelation of worthwhile and attainable goals in life. Christianity has shown man the great potential in right living—and the tragic futility of wrong living.

Attend and support the Church. It can help you choose the best goals . . . and attain them.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
