TILLMAN-WRIGHT

Miss Bessie Lee Wright, daughter of F. A. Wright and the late Mrs. Luola Knight Wright of Rockfish, became the bride of Joseph Harold Tillman, son of Mrs. Mary Dorr and the late Rufus Tillman, in a candlelight ceremony marked with beauty and simplicity at the Tabernacle Baptist church at Rockfish, Sunday, October 30. The Rev. E. B. Booker of Timberlake, former pastor of the bride, officiated, at the double ring ceremony.

The church looked lovely with its background of pines, ivy and fern, flanked by tall vases of white gladioli and white chrysanthemums. Lighted candles on the altar and piano shed a soft glow over the scene as the vows were spoken.

Prior to the ceremony a program of music was rendered by Mrs. P. C. English, pianist. O Perfect Love, was played during the ceremony and the traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride and groom entered the church together. Miss Wright chose for her wedding a dress of ivory white satin, fashioned with long fitted bodice, high neckline with tiny covered buttons down the front, and long sleeves ending in a point over the forefinger. The skirt with its train, was caught back at the waist line and held in place with a large satin bow of the dress material giving the bustle effect. She wore a heart shaped headpiece of the same material trimmed with orange blossoms and a waist length veil, and carried a white Bible topped with a bridal bouquet of white chrysanthemums and streamers.

The bride is a graduate of Hoke County High School. The groom is a veteran of World War II. The couple will make their home at Rockfish.
