

ROCKFISH NEWS

By Mrs. A. A. McInnis.

The attendance for the past month in Rockfish School has been the best of the year so far.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Johnson of Miles City, Montana visited relatives in this county and paid a short visit to their nieces, Mrs. J. E. Wood and Mrs. M. L. Wood and their families last week. Mr. Frank McDuffie of Raeford accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Johnson on their visit to Rockfish. They came to Raeford from Miami, Fla. and have returned to their home in Montana.

A. W. Wood sent his tractor to break the land of the newly acquired playground at Rockfish school. Others have promised help on this project which is very much appreciated and will be a great help in getting the playground ready for use.

PTA held its regular monthly meeting Wednesday night with a good program and very good attendance.

Mrs. C. S. Pickett and children spent the past week end with her mother, Mrs. M. R. Knight. Mrs. Pickett came especially to attend the shower given for her cousin, Mrs. Harold Tillman, Friday evening.

Mrs. Louis Frances of Miami, Fla. visited Mrs. J. E. Wood and Mrs. M. L. Wood sometime last week end the first of this week. She left for her home in Miami, Fla. Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Ray and son, Mac, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ray of Fayetteville, visited Mrs. Marshall Ray and family Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Ray were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. K. P. Ritter and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ray dined with Mrs. Marshall Ray and Mr. and Mrs. John Ray.

The Christmas play to be given at Galatia church will be on Thursday night, December 22. Everybody is invited to attend.

We regret the omission last week of Mr. N. J. Ritter's visit to his sister, Mrs. Lona Smith of Maxton the previous week end.

At the last meeting of the Rockfish club Mrs. Stanley Crawley of the Arabia club gave a most interesting and helpful demonstration on tufted bedspreads. Since then a number of women have expressed their intention of starting a spread.

Churches in this section seem to hold on to the Bible names as Galatia, Ephesus and Philippi were all represented at this meeting also Tabernacle church here.

We learn from Mrs. P. C. English that their sons, Fred and Neal, who are in school at Morganton will arrive on December 17 to spend the Christmas holidays with home folks.

Mrs. E. J. Hare and baby daughter, Anita, spent Monday in Rockfish.

Mrs. Marshall Ray, Mr. and Mrs. John Ray, O. L. Townsend, Thomas McInnis and Mrs. Mary McInnis were among those from Galatia church who attended services at the Presbyterian church in Raeford Sunday night.

Fred Wood has joined the U. S. Army. It is not known where he will be stationed, at present.

The Grange met at Wayside Wednesday night in open session to install the newly elected officers.

The Christmas program at Tabernacle church is planned for Tuesday night before Christmas. Even in the country it is getting so it is hard to keep the various social activities from conflicting.

Miss Lillie Wood spent last Saturday in Fayetteville and had lunch with Mrs. M. S. Bristow.

County Supervisors Are Being Elected

County supervisors of soil conservation districts are being elected in 88 of North Carolina's 100 counties during the week of December 5-10, according to J. Frank Doggett, extension soil conservationist at State College.

Four counties—New Hanover, Watauga, Henderson, and Macon—are holding supervisor elections for the first time and will elect three supervisors each. The other 84 counties will choose one supervisor each. The three supervisors in each county serve staggered terms of three years each.

All qualified voters, regardless of whether they own land or whether they live in the city or the country, are eligible to cast ballots. They must, however, be registered on the regular election books.

A number of polling places have been set up in each county, and voting may be done any time during the week. Information as to location of polling places may be obtained from the county farm agent.

County supervisors do not receive a salary for their services.
