DISTRICT MEDICAL SOCIETY AND AUXILIARY ENTERTAINED

Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Murray and Dr. and Mrs. A. L. O'Briant attended the meeting of the Medical Society and Auxiliary of the Fifth District in Fayetteville Thursday.

In the afternoon the women of the Medical Auxiliary were entertained at the Highland Country club. Luncheon was served at two o'clock and bridge was played for several hours.

The doctors attended a scientific meeting at Veterans hospital in the afternoon but were joined by the women at six o'clock when all were entertained at a cocktail party in the apartments of Drs. Thiele and Ratley.

All were guests at the Veteran's hospital for dinner at which time Dr. H. S. Willis of the McCain Sanatorium was guest speaker.

MRS. AMOS HOSTESS TO CLUB TUESDAY

Mrs. Tommy Amos, who is a native of Red Springs and a member of a bridge club there was, hostess to the members of the club at her home on Sunset Hills Tuesday evening. Three tables were in play and at the end of several interesting progressions tallies were totaled and high score went to Mrs. Alfred Love. Mrs. Jim Blue, Jr. was awarded a consolation prize for having the lowest score.

Mrs. Amos served Russian tea and party sandwiches after the game.

DINNER BRIDGE AT MURRAY HOME

Mrs. Marshall Thomas, Mrs. A. K. Currie and Mrs. R. L. Murray entertained a number of friends Wednesday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Murray, with a well appointed dinner followed by bridge.

Dinner was served to 36, whose places were laid at the card tables. A Christmas motif was carried out in appointments.

After dinner a number of progressions of bridge furnished the evening's entertainment. Mrs. W. L. Poole won high score prize for the ladies and Robert Gatlin for the men. Israel Mann won the bingo prize.

Mrs. Neil Senter and Miss Doris Bradley attended the banquet held at Fuquay Springs last Wednesday, the occasion being the opening of the Chamber of Commerce. Senator Frank Graham was the speaker of the evening. Miss Bradley was accompanist for Mrs. Freedman, who sang.

LITERATURE DEPT. WITH MRS. SNEAD

The Literature Department of the Woman's Club met Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Younger Snead with Mrs. W. J. Coates and Mrs. E. B. Campbell as joint hostesses. Mrs. Snead's home was made festive by a lighted Christmas tree, holly, and other seasonal decorations. The chairman, Mrs. Marcus Smith, presided, and after a short business session an interesting program centered around drama was presented. Mrs. A. L. O'Briant ably discussed "The Growth of Drama in and out of Church, with Emphasis on the Miracle Plays", and Mrs. W. B. Heyward gave a reading based on a Christmas story, "Star across the Tracks", by Bess Streeter Aldrich. The program was climaxed by the singing of Christmas carols by the group. During the social hour the hostesses served fruit cake and Russian tea.

W. M. U. MEETS AT LUMBER BRIDGE

Mrs. N. H. Forbis of Lumber Bridge was hostess to the WMU of Tabernacle Church Monday evening, in honor of her mother, Mrs. S. N. McCall, on her birthday. The group met at the church and went from there to the home of Mrs. Forbis. Christmas decorations and a log fire in the large fireplace made a cheerful setting for the meeting.

Mrs. J. E. Gibson, president, presided during the business session after which the program was turned over to Mrs. P. C. English. Mrs. English gave a very interesting talk on "Christ, The Answer to World Peace," and talked on the place of women in the program of peace.

At the end of the program Mrs. Forbis served delightful refreshments consisting of ambrosia, topped with whipped cream, fruit cake, roasted nuts and Russian tea.

Mrs. McCall, who is a faithful member of WMU, was then presented many birthday gifts by those present.

RECENT BRIDE HONORED AT ROCKFISH

One of the most enjoyable social events of the season at Rockfish was the Christmas party and miscellaneous shower given last Friday night for Mrs. Harold Tillman, recent bride, at the home of Miss Grace Long. Co-hostesses were Miss Long's sisters, Misses Louise and Juanita Long.

Games and contests were directed by Mrs. P. C. English, during which time there was much merriment. A large white box was brought in heaped with gifts for the bride. She opened and displayed the gifts which were both useful and beautiful and some very valuable.

The hostesses served dainty refreshments to the 26 guests present. Favors were tiny boots filled with mints. The Christmas motif was carried out in the decorations and refreshments.
