MISS GULLEDGE HONORED TUESDAY

On Tuesday afternoon Misses Marie Cameron and Phyllis Baker entertained a number of friends, which included the college girls at home on vacation, in honor of Miss Martha Ben Gullledge, popular bride-elect of next month.

Guests were invited for four o'clock. Soon after arrival they went into the dining room for refreshments. The table had a flower centerpiece, all white, on either side of which were candles in epergnettes filled with white pansies. Miss Marie Cameron served frozen lime punch and the guests served themselves to a variety of sandwiches, cookies, nuts and mints from the table.

When they gathered back in the living room Miss Gullledge was presented with a kitchen shower, all useful gifts from those present. Mrs. Daniel Wright, recent bride, was remembered with a gift of crystal by the hostesses.

LESTER HOME SCENE OF DELIGHTFUL PARTIES

Mrs. John McPhaul, Mrs. William Lamont and Mrs. T. B. Lester were hostesses on Friday morning when they entertained at the home of Mrs. Lester.

A variety of cut flowers and glowing potted plants were tastefully used in den, dining room and living room. Score cards and other features emphasized the Easter season, and the spirit of the holiday was evident.

There were four tables playing rook and two bridge. Mrs. Grady Leach won the prize in rook and Mrs. Lawrence McNeill in bridge. A delicious luncheon was served at 1 o'clock.

EVENING PARTIES

On Friday and Saturday evenings the husbands of the three hostesses joined them as hosts. Couples were invited in for bridge at seven o'clock. There were eight tables in play on Friday evening and six on Saturday. A turkey dinner was served on both evenings before the game. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Howard made the highest combined score on Friday and received the prize. Mrs. Paul Dickson, Sr. and Hinton McPhaul were winners of high score prizes on Saturday.

COKE PARTY HONORS RECENT BRIDE

Mrs. Daniel Wright, who before her marriage on April 2 was Miss Bettie Benner, was honored Monday morning when Misses Martha Ben and Nita Gullledge entertained at the home of the latter. Guests were invited to arrive at 10:30 and enjoyed an hour of informal conversation during which time they served cokes with accessories. The hostesses presented Mrs. Wright a gift of china in her pattern.

Those present other than the honoree and the hostesses were: Mrs. Eddie Morden, Mrs. Judson Lennon, Mrs. James Conoly, Mrs. C. J. Benner and Betty Davis.

RECENT BRIDE SHOWN COURTESY

Mrs. Daniel Wright, recent bride, was shown an attractive courtesy last Saturday afternoon when Miss Betty Holtzclaw, who was home for Easter from Winthrop college, entertained in the upstairs living room at Hotel Raeford.

Guests making up three tables were invited to arrive at 4 o'clock. They were served a delicious dessert course after which several progressions of bridge were enjoyed. The hostess presented the honoree with a gift of crystal in her chosen pattern, and Mrs. Wright was then presented with a shower of miscellaneous gifts from the guests present.

Mrs. A. L. O'Brian is a patient at Moore County hospital.

JERRY WRIGHT HAS BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Will Frank Wright entertained in honor of her son, Jerry's third birthday Saturday afternoon from 3:30 till 5 o'clock. Fourteen of Jerry's friends were present and after many games were played inside, an Easter egg hunt took place in the spacious backyard of the home. The little guests were then invited into the house where they were served ice cream and cake. The dining table was beautifully decorated and centered with a large birthday cake decorated in green and white.

Jerry received many gifts.

FULLER-HUNSUCKER

ENGLISH-LONG VOWS PRONOUNCED

Miss Grace Long, daughter of A. L. Long and the late Mrs. Long of Rockfish, became the bride of Grady English, son of Mrs. Ida English and the late F. E. English of Rockfish, Saturday, April 1 at the Tabernacle Baptist Church in Rockfish. The Rev. David E. Miller, pastor of the bride and groom, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was presented by Thomas McFadyen, organist, and Mason Bell of Fayetteville, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional candle light satin gown, fashioned with a portrait neckline of sheer illusion yolk. A shoulder framing ruffle caught in quaint sheerings gave the off-the-shoulder effect. A fitted bodice topped a very full skirt that correspondingly was caught with sheerings to drape softly about its hemline. She carried a bouquet of gardenias.

The bride's sister, Miss Louise Long, was her maid-of-honor. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Miss Etta Mae Dees of Rockfish and Miss Ellen Parker of Laurinburg, nieces of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore orchid and yellow taffeta dresses and carried bouquets of mixed flowers.

Little Miss Linda Kaye Dees, grandniece of the bride, was flower girl. Master Demont Long, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Mr. English had as his best man his nephew, Herbert E. Huggins of Wake Forest College. Ushers were L. B. Dees and A. L. Long, Jr.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride.

For traveling, Mrs. English wore a light blue suit with navy accessories, and gardenias from her bouquet. After the wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. English will be at home in Rockfish.
