SPIVEY-QUEEN

The marriage of Miss Peggy Ruth Queen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Queen, to Charles B. Spivey, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Spivey of Portsmouth, Va., formerly of Raeford, took place April 8 at 8 o'clock in the evening in the Craddock Baptist Church at Portsmouth, Va.

The church was decorated with white gladioli, palms, fern, large baskets of white mixed flowers and cathedral candles. Flowers at the altar were arranged in the form of an arch under which the bride and groom stood.

Mrs. John Ellis played the wedding music and Miss Irene Spivey, sister of the groom, sang, Because, before the ceremony and The Lord's Prayer, as a benediction.

The double ring ceremony was used. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a light blue suit with navy accessories. She carried a nosegay of red roses showered with hyacinths.

Mrs. F. W. Pryor, Jr. was master of honor and Burton Preston was best man. Ushers were James Bunch, Dale Sloan, James Andreatta, and David Queen, brother of the bride.

A reception followed in the church parlors, after which Mr. and Mrs. Spivey left for Washington and other points north. Since their return they are at home at 442 Dorset Avenue, Portsmouth.

Charles Spivey, Jr. is a former Raeford boy, having been born here. He attended the Raeford Schools before his parents moved to Portsmouth. He is a nephew of Walter and Millard Baker, and Mrs. W. J. McNeill.
