

Socials-Personal Items . . .

MRS. GRAHAM HOSTESS TO CLUB

Mrs. Arch Graham was hostess to the members of her bridge club on Thursday evening of last week. Guests other than club members were Mrs. Neill McFadyen, Mrs. Herbert McKeithan and Mrs. Frank Tapp. At the conclusion of the game tallies were totaled. Mrs. T. B. Lester received a gift for having the highest score for club members, and Mrs. McFadyen received the visitor's high score prize.

Refreshments were served after the game.

JIMMY TILLMAN HAS BIRTHDAY

Little Jimmy Tillman celebrated his 4th birthday Saturday afternoon, with a birthday party given at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. James E. Tillman, at four o'clock. A number of his friends were invited and enjoyed playing various games. During the afternoon they were served ice cream and birthday cake. Each child was given a favor to take home.

Sgt. and Mrs. Melvin Rouse had as their guests several days the first of the week, Mrs. Rouse's brother-in-law and sister, Cpl. and Mrs. Paul R. Southerland. They were en route from Augusta, Ga. to Virginia for a visit with relatives, after which Cpl. Southerland will leave for overseas duty in the Pacific.

MRS. MORRIS SHOWN COURTESY

Mrs. Jack Morris, recent bride and newcomer to Raeford, was shown an attractive courtesy on Tuesday evening when Mrs. Harvey Cole and Mrs. J. B. McLeod entertained in a charming manner at the home of Mrs. Cole.

Flowers of brilliant hue were tastefully arranged throughout the entertaining rooms, and Mrs. Morris was given a lovely corsage. Soon after arrival guests were invited into the dining room and were served lime punch from a pleasingly appointed table. The punch bowl was encircled with a pink net ruffle with arrangements of white gardenias, baby's breath and feverfew, with sprays of pink; an all white bouquet centered the table.

Bingo was played at five tables and prizes were awarded the winner of each game. Ice cream, centered with a green wedding bell, individual decorated cakes and nuts were served after the game. The climax of the evening was reached when the hostesses and guests presented the honoree with a shower of gifts.

Around 25 enjoyed the occasion.

MISS WALKER HONORED

Miss Alice Walker was honored on her birthday last Friday evening when Mrs. John Walker and Mrs. Julian Johnson entertained at the home of the latter. A delicious picnic supper was served in the back yard, and the hostesses presented Miss Walker a gift of silver.

Miss Walker, who for the past three years has served as Director of Music and Youth Work at the Presbyterian church has handed in her resignation, effective July 1, and it was accepted with regrets by the Session at a recent meeting.

Mrs. A. A. Ray and Thomas Ray attended the commencement exercises at Meredith college Monday. Irma Ray, who stayed over to participate in the exercises, came home with them to spend the summer vacation.

FINAL PARTIES FOR BRIDAL COUPLE

Last week saw the last of the many attractive parties given for Miss Erma Williams and Haywood Faircloth preceding their wedding on Saturday evening.

CAKE-CUTTING

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gatlin entertained after the rehearsal with the traditional cake cutting. The living room was unusually pretty with an abundance of garden flowers tastefully arranged. The dining table was covered with a white net cloth over green, caught in the middle of each side and at the corners with small bouquets of white flowers. An arrangement of white snapdragons, larkspur and rosebuds centered the table, and a three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, was placed at one end. Girl members of the wedding party pulled the wedding tokens from the cake. Mrs. Hallie Gatlin served the cake, after the bride and groom-elect had cut the first slice. Mrs. Neil Senter poured punch from a crystal bowl at the other end of the table. Nuts and mints were passed by Betsy Ross and Ann Gatlin.

WEDDING BREAKFAST

On Saturday morning at 11 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Neill Senter and Miss Doris Bradley entertained at a wedding breakfast at the Senter home. The dining table was attractive with its doll bride and a bowl of white snapdragons, larkspur, feverfew, rosebuds, and glads. The bride's table, in all white, and two other tables, emphasizing a pastel color note, were arranged in the living room. Places were marked by cards tied with miniature bouquets. A delicious two course meal was served by Mrs. Senter, assisted by Miss Anne Lanier of Lillington. The couple was remembered with pieces of silver in the pattern of the bride. Their guests were members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests.

Mrs. Clyde Upchurch, Mrs. Tommie Caulk and daughter, Candy, left Monday morning for Gainesville, Ga., for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCleskey. Mrs. Caulk's son, Tommie, Jr. is staying at Hoffman with Larry Upchurch.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McPhaul are building a house on Donaldson Avenue, between the homes of J. C. McLean and Herbert McKeithan.

Mrs. N. J. Heyward of Raleigh spent Sunday with Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Heyward.

Mrs. B. E. Cole left yesterday for High Point College to attend summer school for the next 12 weeks.

Miss Mary Black McBryde of Greensboro is spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Foster McBryde. Mrs. McBryde and Miss McBryde attended the Graduation Exercises at Lee's-McRae college in Banner Elk over the week end. Foster McBryde, Jr., who was a member of the graduating class, returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Heston Rose and family, Mrs. Frank Davis, Mrs. Dan Clark and Mrs. John McVicker attended the funeral of Mrs. Carrie Davis at Laurel Hill last Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Davis was a sister of Mrs. Will Rose. Mrs. Rose also attended the funeral and remained for a visit with relatives in Laurel Hill and Gibson.

Mrs. John Walker had as her guests last week her brother, Col. T. M. Tarpley and her sister, Mrs. Halcott Turner of Richmond, Va. Col. Tarpley has just returned from 3½ years in Germany and was en route to his home for a visit with relatives before leaving for Ft. Knox, Kentucky, where he will be stationed.

Miss Anne Lanier of Lillington was a week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Senter.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Wood have taken the upstairs apartment in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Currie.

MISS ERMA WILLIAMS IS MARRIED TO HAYWOOD FAIRCLOTH SATURDAY

The Raeford Baptist church was a scene of beauty Saturday afternoon, June 3, at 5 o'clock when Miss Erma Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jessie G. Williams of Hemingway, S. C., became the bride of Haywood Alexander Faircloth, son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Faircloth of Clinton, N. C. The Rev. Judson Lennon, pastor of the bride, officiated using the double ring ceremony.

Stately magnolia, ivy and tall baskets of feverfew and white gladioli formed the setting for the vows. The wedding music was presented by Miss Doris Bradley of Kipling, Organist, Miss Mary Leila Carwile of Roxboro, Vocalist, and the Raeford High School Sextette consisting of the Misses Joan Sinclair, Florence Cameron, Irene Andrews, Betty Jane Ashburn, Sue Gullede and Iris Thomas. Before the ceremony Miss Bradley played "Poeme" by Fibich, "Meditation on Thais" by Massenet, "Salut d'Amour" by Elgar, and "Traumerie" by Schumann. The Sextette sang "O Perfect Love" and "One Alone". Immediately before the ceremony Miss Carwile sang "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee". As the benediction, the Sextette sang "Seal us O Holy Spirit". The wedding march from "Lohengrin" by Wagner was played for the processional, and Mendelssohn's march from "A Midsummer Night's Dream", was used for the recessional.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and James B. Faircloth, Jr., of Clinton, brother of the groom, was best man. Groomsmen were Laughlin Faircloth, brother of the groom and Harold Turlington, both of Clinton. Ushers were Tom Turlington, Henry Lee Turlington, of Clinton, Lyonel Williams, brother of the bride, of Hemingway, S. C., and William Faircloth of High Point, brother of the groom.

The bride wore a wedding gown of imported Swiss organdy, styled with a fitted bodice of embroidered organdy and fastened with miniature covered buttons extending from the peter pan collar below the waist-line. She wore matching organdy gauntlets. The hooped skirt of plain organdy extended into a long train. The fingertip veil of illusion bordered with a wide panel of chantilly lace fell from a tiara of orange blossoms and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white stephanotis and rose buds centered with a white orchid.

The bride's only attendants were her two sisters; Mrs. Olin Lewis, matron of honor, and Miss Esther Williams, maid of honor. They wore pink and green organdy gowns fashioned after that of the bride and carried nosegays of pastel roses, snapdragons, sweet peas, delphinium, and daisies, tied with harmonizing illusion and pink and green satin ribbons. They wore a matching band of flowers in their hair.

The bride's mother wore a navy floral print over taffeta with navy and white accessories. She wore an orchid shoulder corsage.

The groom's mother wore a navy dress with navy and white accessories and a shoulder corsage of orchids. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Upchurch, Jr. entertained with a reception for the bridal party, families, relatives, and out-of-town guests. Effective arrangements of summer garden flowers were used throughout the living and dining rooms. Lime punch, individual decorated cakes, nuts and mints were served from the dining room table which was covered by a hand-embroidered and lace tablecloth. Crystal candelabra and an arrangement of pink and white snapdragons, carnations and larkspur completed the table decorations. Assisting in serving were Miss Doris Bradley, Miss Mary Leila Carwile and Mrs. Clyde Upchurch, Sr. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. W. T. Gibson, Mrs. Neill Senter and Mrs. Robert Gatlin.

Later the couple left for a wedding trip after which they will be at home in Raeford. For traveling the bride wore a forest green linen suit with matching green and white accessories and the orchid lifted from her wedding bouquet.

The bride was a graduate from Winthrop College in 1948. While there she served on the executive council of the Student Government association, Baptist Student Council, and the Christian association. She was a member of Clionedes and Sigma Epsilon Kappa. During the summer months she was affiliated with the Baptist mission board in Columbia, S. C. Since graduation she has taught English in the high school of Raeford.

The groom served as a 1st Lt. in the Marine Corps during the war. He is a 1947 graduate of the University of North Carolina where he received his B.S. degree in Physical Education. While there he was an active member of the Monogram club and Kappa Sigma Fraternity. Since graduation he has been Physical Education instructor in the high school of Raeford.

Sgt. and Mrs. C. J. Augustoni of Albany, Ga. spent the week end with Mrs. Augustoni's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Stephens. They were accompanied home Monday by Miss Sarah Neal Stephens for a visit.

Little Robert Weaver underwent a tonsilectomy in Red Springs at Dr. Hodgin's clinic Monday.

Heston Rose, Jr. underwent a tonsilectomy at Highsmith hospital Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley Willis had as their guests the first of the week Mrs. Willis' brother, J. G. Webb, and her brother-in-law, Fred Holloman, of Winston-Salem.

W. C. Odom has been quite sick at Thompson's hospital in Lumberton, where he was taken Saturday.

Mrs. Lee Bethune has been a patient at Highsmith hospital since Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hampton are staying with Mr. Bethune.

W. D. Brown has been sick at his home for the past several days.

Mrs. May Garrett of Tulsa, Oklahoma, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Thomas for several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Upchurch, Jr. went to Gastonia Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Upchurch's grandmother, Mrs. Pursley, who died Saturday afternoon. Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at the Crowder's Creek Associate Reform Presbyterian church and burial was in the family plot in the church cemetery. Mr. Upchurch returned to Raeford Sunday and Mrs. Upchurch remained in Gastonia to spend the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Falls.

Miss Agnes Mae Johnson left Sunday for Chapel Hill where she is attending an insurance school this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dickson and family returned Sunday after spending several days at Topsail Beach as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Gatlin, Jr. and Leon. Mrs. Gatlin and Leon remained to spend the week.

Mrs. Glenn Clark entered Baker's Sanatorium in Lumberton Saturday for an operation. Tony Clark is staying with his sister, Mrs. June Johnson, while his mother is in the hospital.

Mrs. J. W. McLaughlin left Saturday for Montreat where she will spend the summer months at the Assembly Inn.

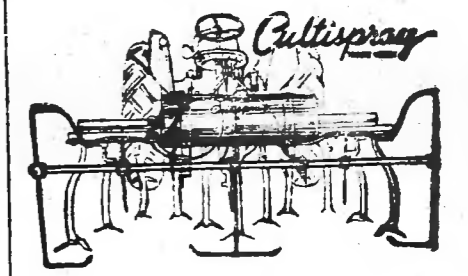

Mr. and Mrs. Boyer Lentz and son, Bobby, spent Sunday in Ansonville visiting Mr. Lentz's sister, Mrs. E. E. McSwain.

J. B. Remm as returned to his home in Henderson after being a member of the high school faculty, for the summer months. Kibler has also returned to his home in Newberry, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle Suddreth of Miami, Fla. are spending a two week's vacation here with Mr. Suddreth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Suddreth. They returned yesterday from Lenoir after a visit of several days with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Gibson and Susan spent the week end in Roxboro. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Gibson's mother, Mrs. Ed Gentry her brother, Ed, and her sister, Mrs. Paul Tracy and son, Paul, Jr., of Boston, Mass.

Boll Weevil Loss Worst Since 1942

Actual news stories emphasize the terrible toll taken annually by cotton insects.

Cultispray effectively controls cotton insects - saves you time, money and labor. Only Cultispray lets you spray while you cultivate, saving you an extra trip through fields.

With Cultispray and new organic insecticides, you can forget about dusting—a disagreeable, expensive, time-consuming job.

Cultispray, lowest priced complete spraying unit, is designed for the South... fully tested... fits any tractor.

Take a tip from Southern farm experts: "The operation cost of applying materials may be saved by spraying equipment being attached to the cultivator and used at the same time the crop is cultivated."

See Cultispray before you buy—and you'll buy Cultispray!

There's only one Cultispray! Available for all makes of Tractors

We have EHC Dust and 60% Trichophene Asernate of Lead Paris Green and 40 W Gyphene

Johnson Cotton Co. Of Raeford Inc.

Raeford THEATRE

Open At 5 P. M. Daily

Thursday - Friday
Wabash Avenue
Betty Grable - Victor Mature
Also Latest World News
Also A Good Cartoon

Saturday
Cowboy and the Prizefighter
Barbary Pirate

Sunday
Shows 3 & 9 P. M.
Whirlpool Gene Tierney
Also A Good Cartoon

Monday - Tuesday
Please Believe Me
Robert Walker - Deborah Kerr
Mark Stephens - Peter Lawford

Wednesday
The Hunted
WIN A HOBBY HORSE FREE
Wednesday Night at 9 P. M.
COMING
Riding High
Bing Crosby

Raeford Kiwanis Club
Thursdays at 6:30
High School Cafeteria

Raeford Lions Club
Tonight at 7 P. M.
LIONS DEN
(In County Office Bldg.)

See The Gold-and-White Beauty of The

New FRIGIDAIRE Master Models!

3 sizes in this series—7.6 cu. ft.—9.2 cu. ft.—11½ cu. ft. Come in, see—

- New adjustable aluminum shelves
- New Twin stack-up Hydrators
- New Meat Storage Drawer
- New Super-Storage Design
- New large Super-Freezer
- New Improved Meter-Mixer

See all the new Frigidaire Refrigerator Models

Model shown MM-92
$269.75
other models from $194.75

SMALL DOWN PAYMENTS DELIVERS ANY MODEL!

BAUCOM APPLIANCE CO.

Authorized FRIGIDAIRE Sales & Service!
Phone 322-1 Raeford, N. C.

Airplane Crop Dusting

—PHONE— —SEE—

Clyde Upchurch, Jr.
2401

Clyde Christopher
RAEFORD AIRPORT

We are back in Raeford for another growing season to serve the people of this community in any capacity possible but especially insect control.

Growers and Farmers interested in scheduling an insect control program may contact the persons listed above at your earliest convenience.

Christopher Dusting Service

CLYDE S. CHRISTOPHER