MRS. HEYWARD HAS TEA FOR MISS ALICE WALKER

Miss Alice Walker, popular director of Music and Religious Education in the local Presbyterian church, was honoree at a very lovely tea, last Thursday afternoon, given at the Manse by Mrs. W. B. Heyward.

The hour during which a hundred or more guests, representatives of all the church groups in town, called, was from five to six. Mrs. Heyward, Miss Walker and Miss Walker's mother, Mrs. J. G. Walker of Forest City, greeted the callers. They were invited into the dining room, where from a table, covered with a green lace cloth, centered with a bowl of vari-colored dwarf zinnias, Mrs. Herbert McKeithan poured punch. Mrs. J. W. McPhaul and Mrs. Hector McNeill, Jr. served. The colors of the flowers were carried out in the icing on the individual cakes, making a most interesting effect.

This tea was a farewell courtesy to Miss Walker as she left Friday for her home in Forest City.

JOYCE MANN HAS BIRTHDAY

Joyce Mann was host to about 25 friends when she entertained on her 10th birthday last Friday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Mann. Girl Scouts of Joyce's group and their leaders, Mrs. Virgil Dark and Mrs. Edith Lindsay, and a few close friends were invited. Weiners and marshmallows were roasted in the back yard, after which a beautiful birthday cake was cut and served by Mrs. Mann. Several games of bingo were played and prizes were awarded to Julia Morris, Harriet Smith, Katherine Epstein and Kisty Lou Norris.

Sgt. and Mrs. Bob Morris left Friday for Camp Campbell, Kentucky, after spending the past three weeks here with Mrs. Morris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Tapp. They spent Friday night in Charlotte in the home of Mrs. Morris' sister, Mrs. J. D. McPhaul, and Saturday night in Black Mountain with Mrs. H. E. Stinchcomb.

MISS JESSIE McFADYEN HONOREE

Misses Peggy Bethune and Agnes Mae Johnson entertained in honor of Miss Jessie Margaret McFadyen, bride-elect of July 7th. This pretty party was given at the Johnson home on Saturday afternoon at 4:30.

Flowers in tasteful arrangements, were used in living room and library. The dining room arrangements were in all white and green. The table was covered with an embroidered linen cloth with lace inserts. A silver container on one end held white glads, snapdragons, roses and fern. On the opposite end was the silver punch bowl, from which Miss Peggy Bethune served frozen punch. Placed on the table were dainty sandwiches in flower designs, other party dainties, nuts and mints, to which the guests served themselves.

The hostesses gave their honor guest crystal goblets. About twenty friends and relatives of the bride-elect were present. Mrs. William J. Rybka and Mrs. Paul Alligood of Fayetteville were the only out-of-town guests.

COUPLES CLUB MEETS

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Upchurch, Jr. entertained the members of the couples club at their home on Thursday evening of last week. Miss Agnes Mae Johnson and Charles Hostetler were the only guests other than members and were remembered with a gift. Three tables were in play and at the conclusion of the game high score prize was awarded to Ray Muench and Charles Morrison was given a consolation prize. Refreshments were served after the game.
