CULBRETH-BAKER VOWS SOLEMNIZED IN LUMBERTON

Miss Anne Caldwell Baker, daughter of Mrs. Horace Mitchell Baker and the late Dr. Baker of Lumberton, and John Charles Culbreth, son of Mrs. Burris Brown Shankle of Raeford, and the late Joseph Worth Culbreth of Pembroke were married Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock in a ceremony in the First Baptist church of Lumberton. Dr. Phillip J. McLean, pastor, and Dr. J. Glenn Blackburn, pastor of the Wake Forest Baptist church, and a former pastor of the bride, were the officiating ministers.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Dr. Horace Mitchell Baker, Jr. of Durham, wore a wedding gown of Duchess satin fashioned with a yoke of illusion embroidered in pearls and rhinestones, the design extending the entire length of the front of the gown which ended in a full cathedral train. The long sleeves were fashioned with calla lily points at the wrists. The bride's wedding veil of imported rosepoint lace fell from Mary Queen of Scots cap garlanded in orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of valley lilies and white orchids.

Mrs. Horace Mitchell Baker, Jr. of Durham, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. There were four bridesmaids and a number of honorary bridesmaids.

The bridegroom had as his best man, Fred Deans of Charlotte and St. Pauls, formerly of Lumberton. Joe Culbreth of Raeford, brother of the bridegroom was one of the eight ushers.

The bride is a graduate of Lumberton High School and attended St. Mary's in Raleigh, and the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, Greensboro.
