

ROCKFISH NEWS

By Mrs. A. A. McInnis

A large and appreciative audience heard the Bailey Brothers and the Happy Valley Quartet of WPTF, Raleigh, at Rockfish school auditorium Monday night. This show was sponsored by the Home Demonstration club for the benefit of the club. It was a good clean entertainment and can be recommended for such purposes. The club women also sold a quilt they had made. All told they realized about $50.00 for the club.

The marriage of Miss Betty Baker of Raeford and Donald

Wood was very much of a surprise to many of their friends at Rockfish. We wish for them a long and happy life.

Last week we neglected to mention that Fred English who is in school at Morganton, broke his collar bone while playing football recently. He had just recovered from a fracture sustained while playing ball. Anyway we guess he will be playing again before long. A little accident like that is not enough to stop a boy from playing who likes football as Fred does, and we hope no accidents happen any more.

The Wayside Grange has accepted on invitation to meet with the Home Demonstration club for a Christmas party next Wednesday night. Everyone is to carry a simple present some thing made or grown on the farm, and a small amount of fruit, nuts and candy. There will be a prize given for the "tackiest" dressed person at this party, so don your outfit that you consider "tacky" and see if you can't win the prize. Everybody is going to dress this way and we expect to have lots of fun unless the weather decides to cut another unusual caper.

Miss Ruby Wood of Franklinville and Bruce Dees of State College spent the Thanksgiving holidays with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Seavy Andrews and daughter, Sue, of Asheboro visited Mr. and Mrs. Will Monroe over the past week end.

Mrs. Chal Dove is spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. Gordon Barnard and family of Florence, S. C.

Mrs. Mary Dorr, who has been spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tillman, returned to her home in Tampa, Fla. Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hare and baby daughter, Anita, of Aberdeen, visited Mrs. Mary McInnis Tuesday.

Mrs. Marshall Ray visited Mrs. Walter Hall of Aberdeen Sunday.

Mrs. K. P. Ritter won the electric refrigerator offered in a contest by the Johnson Cotton Co. in Fayetteville. The contest ended last week.

Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Hawkes and children spent the past week end with Mrs. Hawkes parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bowyer of Laurinburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan McInnis and children of Raeford visited Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Wood Sunday.
