

The News-Journal

The Hoke County News

The Hoke County Journal

VOLUMEXLVI; NUMBER 1

THURSDAY, MAY 31, 1951

RAEFORD, N. C.

Holtzclaw, Dorene Duncan, Fannette Gore.

Betty Lou Burns.

Fourth Row: James Tapp, John Eubanks, Dave

Barrington, Billy Lester, Jesse Jones, Mitchell

Alexander, O. B. Maxwell, Jr., Everette Bowen.

years of age.

terday afternoon.

Electrician Dies

On Job Monday

From Heart Attack

TEN CENTS PER COPY

$2.00 PER YEAR

YOUR SCHOOL

By K. A. MacDonald

The Board of Education meeting today at 10:00 o'clock to go over preliminary plans for Raleigh for approval by the state hundred and fifty-one." authorities.

Grammar grades held their clos- Home" and Synod changed the ing exercises in the form of a name to "William Black Home" Class Day Exercise.

Today all pupils will be given run for ministers and church fees, etc., will be collected and eral years ago. the doors closed on the 1950-51 session

standing numbers

Tonight at 8 o'clock the Mc- Clifton M. Wilson, Farland school will hold their closing exercises. They have worked hard in preparing the program and it is hoped that parents and friends will turn out Millside school will present its final exercises. The school has made a name for itself for the pay parents and friends to attend.

school auditorium, Monday mornthe pupils and will be put on by them as has been the custom for the past several years. We hope parents and friends to see the seniors graduate.

The colored schools of the county will all close for the session on Mnday, June 4.

The superintendent's office will be busy all the balance of this week and next checking the

William E. McGill, Raeford Native, Dies In South Carolina

William Earl McGill, 66, veteran employee of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad, died Monday afternoon in McColl, S. C., while on regular run between Fayetteville and Bennettsville. He was stricken with a heart attack.

He was born in 1885, son of the late Celia and Byrus McGill of Raeford, and had been employed by the railroad for the past 40 D. Marshall of McCain, are comyears. He was a member of the First Baptist church of Fayetteville, where he made his home.

Funeral services were conducted at the First Baptist church at three o'clock yesterday afternoon by the Rev. Louis S. Gaines, pastor. Burial was in Lafayette Memorial park. Pallbearers were nephews of the deceased: Carlton, Berder, William and J. A. Niven and Landon, Tracy and James Surviving are his wife, the St. Pauls; a sister, Mrs. B. G. number of nieces and nephews. | cular vocation and career.

Presbyterians Will Have Opening Of Home In Montreat

The following invitation has been received by a number of people in Raeford and by Presbyterians throughout the South: "The Board of Trustees of the William Black Home cordially the Raeford Graded addition, the invite you to the unveiling of the Upchurch addition and for the Portrait of Dr. Black and the new Indian school. If the plans formal opening of the Home at are approved the architect and Montreat on June the twentysuperintendent will take them to first at three o'clock, Nineteen

The home was operated by the Presbyterian Synod of North Monday night the Rockfish Carolina as the "North Carolina after his death in 1927. Its first establishment was proposed to the Yesterday was skip-day in all Synod by Dr. Black, official evanthe white schools of the county. gelist in the Synod, and it was their report cards. Books, damage workers. This home burned sev-

. The churches of the Synod of North Carolina have now constructed a new building and the Tuesday night the Upchurch Women of the Church of the band and choral club gave their, Synod have furnished it, and it annual concert. This was the first is also to be named for Dr. Black. year for the band. Their perform- The portrait to be unveiled was ance was excellent for their first presented to the home by his time. The audience thoroughly family. The new home has acenjoyed the whole program. The commodations for about 50 guests choral club sang several out- and is centrally located in Montreat.

Native Of Raeford, Buried In Aberdeen

nospital Saturday afternoon after way it does things. We feel that Wilson and Mrs. Sallie Monroe these exercises will be on par Wilson. He went to Aberdeen in with all the others and it will 1920 and entered the hardware business in which he was engaged until his death. He was a The Upchurch commencement business, civic and church leader exercises will be held in the in Aberdeen, having been an elder in Bethesda Presbyterian church ing, June 4, at 11 o'clock. These and for several years chairman exercises have been prepared by of the Aberdeen school board. Funeral was conducted at Bethesda at 10:00 o'clock Monday morning by the Rev. Charles W. there will be a large crowd of Worth, pastor of the church and burial followed in the Bethesda cemetery.

> He is survived by two sons, Clifton M., Jr., and Robert S. Wilson; his mother, Mrs. James A. Wilson of Raeford; two brothers, John L. Wilson of Charleston, S. C., and Daniel C. Wilson of Richmond, Va.; four sisters, Mrs. John Cameron of Raeford, Mrs. Charles Newberry of Washington. D. C., Mrs. E. L. Parrott of Sumter, S. C., and Mrs. Clay E. Kirk of Aberdeen. His wife, Mrs. Margaret Sessions Wilson, died in June, 1950.

McCain Airmen Finishing Courses At Texas Base

Antonio, is the world's largest air announced this week that he was home of AF's Officer Candidate

Their basic training is preparing them for entrance into Air former Lillian Tew of Red Springs; Force technical training and for will be held Friday, June 1, 1951 ette Gervias of New Britain, great niece, Iris Thomas, gradu- ing electric cords and other electwo prothers, Carl McGill of assignment in specialized work. in the Armory in Lumberton. Dr. Conn. spent the week end in ate at High School. Mrs. Bennett tric home appliances and getting High Point and Tom McGill of The course includes a scientific J. E. Jacobs of Charlotte will be Chapel Hill and Raeford. On and Mrs. McNeill went to Nor- rid of rubbish that's accumulated evaluation of their aptitude and the surgeon in charge. Patients Monday they visited Miss Jean wood Wednesday for a week's in the house over the winter-Jones of Chocowinity; and a inclination for following a parti- should register between eight and Campbell, who is on vacation at visit with another sister. Mrs. and then keeping the house that

Finals Program To Start Saturday At Flora Macdonald

11:15 o'clock.

front lawn.

John E. Williams, professor of organ at the college, will give an organ recital in the auditorium.

Mr. Williams, a brilliant organist, was awarded first place in the Southern Regional meet of the American Guild of Organists,

The Senior Vesper service will be conducted by the Rev. R. L.

Alexander, pastor of the First

Presbyterian church of Lumber-

ton, on Sunday evening at 7:30.

This service ill be held on the

the Bible department, will pre-

The Commencement program

Marion Gatlin, member of the new board of commissioners of the Town of Raeford and for several years a member of the Rae-

the graduating class.

QUITS ONE JOB

TO HOLD CLINIC

eleven o'clock.

held in New Orleans in April.

Clifton Monroe Wilson, 57, died suddenly in the Moore County Tomorrow night, June 1, the having suffered a heart attack several weeks before.

> He was born and reared in this county, son of the late James A.

Pvt. Robert S. Perry, Jr., 21. of McCain and Pvt. Duke Marshall, Jr., 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. pleting AF basic airmen indoctrination course at Lackland Air Force Base, the "Gateway to the Lackland, situated near San ford district school committee, force base, site of Air Force resigning as a member of the basic training, for men and wo- school committee in order not to men, headquarters of the Human be in two public positions at one Resource Research Center, and time.

1951 SENIORS - HOKE HIGH SCHOOL

Members of the 1951 Graduating Class at Hoke County High school who received their diplomas Tuesday night are shown above as follows, from left to right: Front Row: Betty Upchurch, Avery Connell, Mary Lytle, David Gibson, Sue Gulledge, Marjorie McDougald, Connie Fulk, Betty Vanhoy, Florence Cameron, Christine Sides. Second Row: Doc Ivey, Peggy Walters, Mattie Stevens, Iris Thomas, Sue Upchurch, Irene Andrews, Joan Freeman, Franklin Teal, Jane Mc-Keithan, Louise Freeman.

Third Row: Etta Mae Dees, Kenneth Davis, Elaine Chambers, Raye King, Tiffany Cothran,

and Earl Hendrix, treasurer. Woodmen Circle Wins State Honor

The fifteenth state convention of Dr. Bernard H. Boyd, James the Supreme Forest Woodmen Gray professor of Bible at the Circle was held at the Sheraton Southern Pines, died suddenly at good. In the other, to Raeford Harry Harrison, representing Hotel, High Point, May 25, 26, 27 University of North Carolina, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon with Piedmont Grove No. 172, at the 55th Commencement pro- High Point, Hostess Grove. Disgram of Flora Macdonald college tinguished guests present were Mrs. Dora Alexander Tally, Naon Sunday morning, June 3, at tional President, and Miss Blanche Eakin, National Director. On Sunday afternoon, at 3:30,

The Raeford Grove won the first prize for being the outstanding Grove in the State. Mrs. Florence Macko of the Raeford Grove was also elected one of the state officers, that of state auditor.

Mrs. Macko, president, and three brothers and four sisters. Mrs. Ruby Conoly, past president Funeral was held at Powell of the local grove, attended the

LIBRARY NEWS

There will be a story hour at Dr. Arnold Nash, head of the Hoke County Library Thursday department of Religion at the afternoon, June 7, at 4 o'clock. University of North Carolina, This will be the beginning of the will make the graduating address | Circus Reading Club, put on by to the seniors at the Commence- the library for the summer, to ment Day exercises on Monday, last till August 17. At this time June 4. The Academic Procession the boys and girls can register will begin at 10:30 A. M. Presi- for the reading club, and the dedent Marshall Scott Woodson will tails of the reading project will award diplomas and certificates, be explained.

The bookmobile has been out and Dr. Leslie Bullock, head of of order, but is being repaired, and will make the regular schesent Bibles to the members of dule in a few days.

Among the new books received will open with "Alumnae Day", are the following: Proud New Saturday, June 2, when gradu-Flags, Mason; Neither Five Nor ates of many classes are expect- Three, MacInnes; God's Men, ed to foregather. At 6:45 Satur- Buck; His Eye is On the Sparrow, day evening, senior capping and Waters; Each Man's Son, Macson of Mrs. and Mrs. R. S. Perry class day exercises, will be held. Lennan; Pacific Hopscotch, Del Rey; Joy of Flower Arranging. Wilson; Flight of Fancy, Riddell; They Came to Bagdad, Christie.

> Mrs. Earl Blue and Mrs. Annie Irby of Augusta, Ga. visited Mrs. W. E. Blue and Miss Louise Blue

Monday to spend the month of yesterday. June with her mother, Mrs. Grady Leach and family.

Tuesday Morning

wife and four minor children. He King the valedictory. pleaded guilty and got one year on the roads to be suspended on family.

the costs. Jackie Maxwell, Betty Nixon, Billy Phillips, Joan

Fifth Row: Earl Hendrix, Ray Butner, D. B. Parker, Robert McGirt, John Balfour, Thomas Class officers are: James Tapp, president; Betty Upchurch, vice-president; Fannette Gore, secretary;

> Thomas C. Vann, resident of the costs and making the check Roberts in primary grades. two o'clock Monday afternoon at Super Market for $57.10, he got the Lion's Club, gave the award Robbins Mill here. Mr. Vann was 60 days suspended on the same to Carolyn Atkinson and Connie employed by the Bryant Electric conditions.

> company of High Point and suf- For driving improperly equip- in high school and to Linda Philfered a heart attack while work- ped cars Willie Davis and Ervin lips and Nancy Faye Calhoun, ing on the new mill. He was 51 Davis, both colored, each had to

He was a native of Fayetteville Speeders paying $10 and the and had settled in Moore county costs were Herbert S. Clark, after traveling about the coun- Harold Atkins, Julian E. Parks, try for many years in his work. William T. McQuage and James He is survived by his wife, the W. Lawrence, all white. Obie D. former Cornelia Phillips of Moore Solomon, colored, paid the costs county; a daughter and a son; for speeding.

Raeford Girls Get College Diplomas

Chapel in Southern Pines yes-

Five girls from Raeford and Hoke county were among those receiving their degrees from colleges in North Carolina at exercises in the past few days.

Carolina at Greensboro. They ent national figures in a vast efof Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mc- life and property by fires in the Keithan, Joan Johnson, daughter United States. of Fred P. Johnson and Mrs. Adelyne Johnson, and Elizabeth visited by a fireman to assist Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. householders to check the com-D. K. Parker. Bettie Davis, daugh- mon hazards in their homes. ter of Mrs. Frances Davis, re- Chief Lewis asked for the vigoceived her degree from Greens- rous support of every resident in boro college, and Marie Cameron, helping firemen make the survey. daughter of Mrs. H. A. Cameron, received her degree from Salem College in Winston-Salem.

Cedartown, Ga. are guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Holtzclaw. They granddaughter, Jo Arne Holtzclaw, graduate at Hoke High. Miss Betty Holtzclaw of Winth-Miss Eleanor Leach, who is in rop College also came home for training at the Medical College commencement exercises at Hoke of Virginia at Richmond, arrived High. She returned to Winthrop

> Mrs. Ollie Lentz Bennett of Eayetteville visited Mrs. John K. Jessie Lanier.

15 Cases Heard In Recorder's Court

Judge Henry McDiarmid ruled on 15 cases in recorder's court Tuesday morning. Most dealt with traffic violations, although liquor, fighting, bad checks and nonsupport also came up.

Davis, Franlin Webb, Carson Davis, Davis Currie, pias was to issue.

pay $10 and the costs.

Raeford To Have Fire Inspection Safety Campaign

Raeford will join the national home inspection drive to rid American homes of fire hazards starting June 1, Fire Chief R. B. Lewis announced today. This is part of a county-wide campaign sponsored by the International Association of Fire Chiefs and Three graduated from Woman's supported by past president Her-College of the University of North bert Hoover and other prominwere Lydia McKeithan, daughter fort to curb the annual loss of

Every home in Raeford if be Another phase of the drive will be to keep complete records of every fire and its cause in an attempt to discover the worst Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hannah of home hazards in Raeford. Householders will then be in a better position to protect their own came especially to see their homes against fires, the Chief added. Chief Lewis commented on the local program in Raeford that following the home inspections the drive will extend to businesses and other public buildings.

He placed special emphasis on 'good housekeeping" to reduce home fires:

"Many more of the fires in Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gervais of McNeill the first of the week. Raeford could be eliminated by The monthly orthopaedic clinic Plainville, Conn. and Miss Claud- She came especially to see her careful housekeeping, by checkway all year."

Award Diplomas To 50 Tuesday At HHS Finals

The graduation program of the Hoke County High School brought the commencement exer-Walter Rogers and Ralph Cha-cises to a close Tuesday evening, vis, Indians, indicted each other May 29 at 8:15 o'clock when Dr. for assault. By trial time they had Frontis Johnson of social science resolved their difference and did department of Davidson College not want to prosecute. The judge delivered an inspiring and chalallowed the case to be dropped lenging address. W. T. Gibson, on payment of the costs by each. Jr., principal, awarded diplomas Andrew Purcell, colored, was to 50 seniors. Betty Upchurch charged with non-support of his gave the salutatory and Raye

Marion Gatlin, representing the Kiwanis Club, presented payment of the costs and $40 prizes for best all round pupil in monthly for the support of his high school to Betty Upchurch. in Raeford Elementary School to Bill Almond, white, pleaded Mollie South, and in primary guilty of driving drunk with no grades to Billie Shankle. The driver's license. He got a total of American Legion award was prefive months on the roads sus- sented by N. H. G. Balfour for pended on payment of $125 and best boy and girl citizen to Jane McKeithan and Davis Currie. Robert L. Savage, white marine, Mrs. W. B. Heyward, president charged with driving drunk. He of Raeford Woman's Club, refailed to appear for trial and ca- presented the departments of the club with following awards: David Miller, colored, was found valedictorian's medal given by guilty of assaulting his wife. He Educational Department to Raye got six months on the roads, su- King; prize for best reader in spended on condition that he pay high school from Literature dethe costs and a $10 doctor bill partment to Joan Sinclair; prizes and be of good behavior for two for best creative writing (also from Literature department) to J. D. Wilkes, Jr., white, pleaded Annie Blue Cameron from senior guilty of giving a bad check in high school, to Lawrence McNeill two cases. In one, to the Atlantic in junior high school group, to Tobacco Co., for $180 he got 90 Belinda Sue Williamson in eledays suspended on payment of mentary grades, and to Mary > Mae Fulk for being best spellers best spellers in elementary school. The history medal given by W.O. W. was awarded to John Mc-Lauchlin by Superintendent K. A. MacDonald.

Special music for the program was furnished by John Davis accompanied by Miss Doris Bradley, public school music teacher. Betty Jane Ashburn, who had highest scholastic average in the junior class, served as chief marshal for all the high school commencement exercises. Other marshals chosen on basis of their grades were Annie Blue Cameron, John McLauchlin. Joyce Conoly, Pat Ritter, and Frances Bobbitt. On Friday evening the senior class, under the direction of Miss Hilda Priest, presented "Indian Echoes", their annual class night exercises. These exercises, with O. B. Maxwell serving as chief, were very original and entertaining. The script following the same meter and rythm as Longfellow's 'Hiawatha' was given as a choral reading by members of the class.

Indian songs and dances. The baccalaureate sermon was delivered by the Rev. W. C. Ball, superintendent of Methodist Churches in the Fayetteville District, in high school auditorium

The different features of the class

light program were cleverly brought into the exercises. The entire program was enlivened by

Sunday morning. On Monday morning, May 28, Seventh Grade Promotion exercises were held in high school auditorium. Joan Gobeille gave the salutatory and Frankie Mc-Dougald the valedictory. Mayor J. O. Tally, Jr. of Fayetteville gave the address on this occasion. Linda Ann Phillips of Raeford Elementary was chief marshal. Marshals for seventh grade program were chosen according to scholastic record of sixth graders throughout the county. Others serving as marshals were: Nancy Lee Cloer of Ashemont, Edward Langston and Virginia McNeill of Raeford Graded School, Betty Scarborough of Rockfish, and Ruby Mae Clark of Mildouson.

Rockfish furnished a duet for

(Continued on page 4)