MRS. SNEAD AND MRS. THOMAS GIVE INFORMAL TEA FRIDAY

A pretty informal tea, honoring Miss Leonora Currie, was that given by Mrs. Crawford Thomas and Mrs. Younger Snead at 4:30 on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Snead.

A corsage of deep pink rosebuds and baby's breath was given to Miss Currie.

Guests were invited into the dining room, which looked beautiful with its bridal decorations. Flowers used on the table were white snapdragon, regal lilies and baby's breath, flanked by lighted candles in crystal holders. Mrs. Paul Dezerne served punch. Ices in the shape of bride's roses were served with individual cakes daintily decorated. The hostesses were assisted in serving by their daughters, Misses Iris Thomas and Jenelle Snead. The bride-elect's gift from the hostesses were crystal. Twenty-five friends of the honoree and her mother enjoyed this hospitality.

Those attending the graduation of Dr. Riley M. Jordan from Bowman Gray School of Medicine of Wake Forest college in Winston-Salem Monday night were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Jordan, Dr. Julius Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baker.

Miss Janie Lou Veasey Married To Thomas F. McFadyen Saturday P. M.

The marriage of Miss Janie Lou Veasey daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Veasey, and Thomas F. McFadyen, was solemnized in a candlelight ceremony at 8 o'clock Saturday evening at the Raeford Baptist Church. The Rev. Judson Lennon, pastor of the bride, and the Rev. P. O. Lee, pastor of the Raeford Methodist church, officiated. The double ring ceremony was used.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Alton Warren, organist, and Mason Bell, soloist, both of Fayetteville. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin with a fitted bodice and full skirt falling into a cathedral train. It had a marquise yoke inset etched with a seed pearl design. The design was repeated on the long sleeves, pointed over the hand. The fingertip length veil of illusion fell from a double pearl coronet. She carried the traditional white orchid on a prayer book.

Mrs. Dan Pitt of Rocky Mount, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a floor length gown of orchid lace and marquisette. The bridesmaids were Miss Ruby Dunbar and Miss Agnes Rell. They wore similar gowns, one of aqua and one of pink. All three attendants carried bouquets of yellow rosebuds and carnations. They wore small flower coronets, matching their gowns, in their hair.

Little Olivia Pitt, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore white gandy over yellow satin and carried a basket of yellow rosebuds.

Pfc. Donald Schubring of Ft. Jackson, S. C. was best man. Groomsmen were Fred McFadyen, brother of the groom, Alton Warren, Dr. Julius Jordan and Dan Pitt.

For the wedding Mrs. Veasey wore powder blue sheer with white accessories, and Mrs. McFadyen wore pink with white accessories. Both wore corsages of pink carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony the bridal party formed a receiving line in the vestibule of the church to receive congratulations after which the couple left for a wedding trip. For traveling Mrs. McFadyen wore a suit of navy with white accessories and the orchid lifted from her prayer book.

The bride is a graduate of Hoke County High School and will complete her nurse's training at Highsmith hospital the latter part of June.

Pfc. McFadyen also graduated from Hoke County High School and attended Bob Jones College, Greenville, S. C. He is now in the army and stationed at Fort Jackson, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Crawley of Lynchburg, Virginia, were visitors in the home of Mr. Crawley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Crawley, during the week end.

AT HOME HONORS BRIDE AND BRIDE-ELECT

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Clyde Upchurch and daughter, Mrs. Robert McCleskey of Winston-Salem gave a formal afternoon tea at the home of Mrs. Upchurch. At this time they honored Mrs. Phil Johnson, a bride of the spring, and Miss Leonora Currie, bride-elect of this month.

Mixed summer flowers in tasteful arrangements were used in living room and music room. In the dining room a motif in yellow and white was carried out in flower arrangements and all appointments. The table was covered with a hand embroidered cloth of Chinese linen and design. Yellow candles in crystal holders and glads, snapdragons and roses in yellow with feathery sprays and maline bows were used on the table. A large silver bowl on buffet held magnolias and magnolia buds. Decorated cakes, salted nuts, and candies and the punch bowl, holding frozen orange punch, completed the table arrangements.

Assisting Mrs. Upchurch and Mrs. McCleskey in receiving and serving were: At front door, Mrs. Julian Johnson. In the receiving line were Mrs. Upchurch, Mrs. McCleskey, Miss Leonora Currie, Mrs. Phil Johnson, Mrs. A. E. Currie and Mrs. Adelyne Roberts Johnson. At the dining room door, Mrs. Tommie Upchurch; serving in the dining room were Mrs. Lewis Upchurch at the punch bowl; and Mrs. Clyde Upchurch, Jr., Miss Agnes Mae Johnson and Miss Joan Johnson. Mrs. R. B. Lewis received in the music room and goodbyes were said to Mrs. H. A. Cameron.

About seventy friends called during the afternoon.

Friends of Col. and Mrs. Bob Conk and their daughter, Lynn, received announcements this week of commencement exercises of Frankfurt High School, Frankfurt, Germany, June 8th. Lynn was a member of the senior class.
