MISS JOHNSON HONORS BRIDE-ELECT THURSDAY

On Thursday afternoon Miss Agnes Mae Johnson invited very close friends and contemporaries of Miss Leonora Currie in for two tables of bridge. After a most interesting round of bridge and conversation, Mrs. A. K. Currie, mother of the honoree, Mrs. Luke Bethune and Miss Maude Poole, aunts; and Miss Peggy Bethune joined the party and all enjoyed a most delicious buffet supper.

In the game of bridge, Mrs. Robert McCleskey of Winston-Salem made highest score and received the prize. Miss Johnson had given Miss Currie a lovely corsage when she arrived, and after the game she gave her silver in the pattern she has chosen.

MRS. BROWN BRIDGE HOSTESS

Mrs. Dwight Brown was hostess to her bridge club Thursday evening at her home on North Main Street.

As soon as the guests arrived they were served a dessert course and during the game an iced fruit drink was served.

Attractive flower arrangements were used in Mrs. Brown's living and music rooms where bridge was played.

Mrs. Arthur D. Gore received high score for members and Mrs. J. S. Johnson received visitor's high. Both were given attractive gifts. Mrs. W. M. Thomas was also given a gift for winning in the bingo game.

MRS. McPAUL HOST TO WEDNESDAY CLUB

Mrs. John McPaul was hostess to the Wednesday afternoon club last Wednesday. There were two tables in play; six club members and two visitors. Mrs. Chandler Roberts and Mrs. Herbert McKeithan were those other than club members playing.

Mrs. Bill Lamont won the club prize and Mrs. McKeithan the visitor's prize.

The hostess served a delicious and pretty dessert before the bridge game and an iced drink during the progress of the game.

MR. AND MRS. JOHNSON HONORED BY COUSINS

Mr. and Mrs. June Johnson and Miss Agnes Mae Johnson gave a pretty party Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Johnson, Senior. At this time Mr. and Mrs. Phil Johnson, their cousins, who were married in the Spring, were the honored guests.

Many young married couples were invited to meet Mrs. Johnson, who recently joined her husband, after having finished her work as a teacher in the Morganton schools. It was a most interesting get-together. They played games and had a number of contests full of fun. Prizes were all toys, appropriate with the games played. The honorees were presented a useful and pretty gift.

Punch was served during the evening and an ice course after the games.

JOHNSON - WAGONER

A very attractive picture of Miss Joan Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Adelyne Roberts Johnson of Raeford and Fred Johnson of Raleigh, appeared in the Sunday State papers. At this time her engagement to William Eugene Wagoner of Sanford was announced. The wedding is planned for early fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stone of Falls Church, Virginia, spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Warren.

LITTLE - PAIT

Miss Sadie Pait and Sgt. Silas Little of Fort Bragg were married Saturday night, June 9, at Bennettsville, S. C., and are honeymooning at Daytona Beach, Fla.

Sgt. and Mrs. Little are both from Lumberton. Mrs. Little has been employed at Morgan Motor Company since the first of the year as bookkeeper, and has made her home with Mrs. Preston Kelly. Upon their return Sgt. and Mrs. Little will be at home with Mrs. Kelly.

LINEN SHOWER FOR MISS CURRIE

Mrs. Alfred Cole and daughter, Mrs. Ken McNeill of McCain, entertained in honor of Miss Leonora Currie Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Cole.

Six tables were placed for bridge in rooms made attractive with arrangements of mixed summer flowers. Miss Currie's place was marked with a dainty baby orchid corsage. Mrs. Dave Willis, laughter-in-law of Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Willis of McCain, a recent bride, was also given a corsage.

After many interesting progressions of bridge, scores were counted, and Mrs. Tommie Upchurch, holding highest score, was given the prize.

A very lovely salad plate with iced tea was served. Favors on the plate were tiny baskets tied with pink rosebuds, holding individual cakes.

After enjoying this most refreshing repast, the bride-elect and guests were invited into Mrs. Cole's bedroom. Here the bed was heaped with beautifully wrapped packages; all linen gifts for Leonora. She opened these and was enthusiastic in showing her appreciation.

The gift from the hostesses to their honoree was a cake plate of an old pattern. Mrs. Cole and Mrs. McNeill also gave Mrs. Dave Willis a gift.

FORMER RAEFORD GIRL MARRIES IN VIRGINIA

A lovely candle light marriage was solemnized Friday evening June 8, in Cradock Baptist church, Cradock, Virginia, when Miss Irene Baker Spivey became the bride of Edward Lockstampfer, Jr.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harvey L. Bryant before a setting of palms, candelabras, altar baskets of white gladioli and baby's breath.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of blush satin with illusion neckline and dainty rosebuds. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was arranged from a satin half hat with rosebuds. She carried a white Bible showered with baby's breath, fern, and topped with a white orchid.

Mrs. Herman McClenny, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. C. B. Spivey, Jr., Mrs. L. D. Edwards, Misses Barbara Ann Spivey, Joyce Dornier, Joy Sloan and Janet Oliver. Little Gary McClenny, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer and little Deanna Edwards was flower girl.

Edgar Lockstampfer, brother of the groom was best man, ushers included John G. Lockstampfer, Charles Spivey, Jr., Herman McClenny, Duayne Black, Fred Ferris and Jack Stewart.

The bride's mother wore a gown of powder blue crepe and lace and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother wore a gown of aqua and corsage of carnations.

Mrs. Lockstampfer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Spivey, formerly of Raeford, and a niece of Walter and Millard Baker and Mrs. W. J. McNeill of Raeford.

Rev. Lockstampfer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lockstampfer of Cradock, Va.

Clarence Willis, Mrs. W. J. McNeill and Miss Edith McNeill of Raeford attended the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Freeman and daughter, Carlene, spent Sunday in Cheraw and Lancaster, S. C. They went especially to bring Miss Mary Raye Freeman home for a few days vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Palmer of Raleigh spent the week end in the homes of R. L. Bethune and Mr. and Mrs. Starr McMillan. Mrs. Margaret Cummings and little son, Starr, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Palmer to Raleigh Sunday to spend this week.

PARTIES CONTINUE FOR MISS CURRIE

Miss Leonora Currie, popular bride-elect continues to be the inspiration for a number of pretty parties, both formal and informal.

On Friday morning from 10:30 to 11 Mrs. Marcus Smith and Mrs. Neill A. McDonald gave an informal coca-cola for her at the home of Mrs. McDonald. About twenty friends of Leonora and her mother were invited in for this hour. Coca-colas with a variety of party accessories were served and the honoree was given a gift of crystal.

MORNING COCA-COLA FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Mrs. Joe Hoffman of Ft. Bragg, Mrs. N. B. Blue and Miss Bonnie Kate Blue gave a coca-cola for Miss Leonora Currie Monday morning at 10:30 at the Blue home.

Mutual friends of the honoree and her mother and the hostesses were invited to share this hospitality. During the hour of lively conversation hors d'oeuvres, many kinds of party sandwiches, cheese biscuits and other tid bits were served with the coca-colas which were brought in embedded in ice on a large silver tray. All appointments were most original and pretty. The honoree received from her hostesses a handsome odd piece of silver in her pattern.
