

ROCKFISH NEWS

By Mrs. A. A. McInnis.

A large number of people from Rockfish and vicinity attended preaching services at the big green tent in Fayetteville Sunday night.

Night services will be resumed at Tabernacle Baptist church here next Sunday night.

Mrs. C. W. Ridge of Baltimore, Md., spent the latter part of last week with Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Gibson and Mrs. J. M. McMillan. She also visited Mr. and Mrs. Syd Sumner of Lumber Bridge.

For a lot of people around here "going to the Fourth" this year meant going to Waldo's Beach.

Albert McClellan of Hamlet was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Boseman Sunday afternoon. Mr. McClellan is a brother of French McClellan, a former principal of Rockfish school. Some years ago he worked with Mr. and Mrs. Boseman and made his home with them, so he is always a welcome visitor.

Lynda Kay Dees was honored on her sixth birthday last Saturday, July 7th, with an afternoon party at her home given by her mother, Mrs. Lynn Dees. Those present other than Lynda and her sister, Ann, were Demont, Diane and Devone Long, Dannie Thomas, Kay Sumner, Carolyn Wood, Ronald Long, Harold Dees, Carolyn and Barbara Beasley and Ann Bostic. Mrs. Dees assisted by Mrs. L. D. Long and Miss Etta Mae Dees led the children in outdoor games for awhile before serving ice cream, cake and nuts. Little Miss Dees was the recipient of many nice gifts and all enjoyed the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith McInnis and daughters, Mary Kate and Ann, Mrs. J. M. Maxwell of Raeford Tourist Court and Mrs. Mary McInnis enjoyed a picnic at Waldo's Beach last Wednesday.

A. L. Long visited his daughter, Mrs. Wright Parker at Laurinburg Tuesday and found her much improved. Mrs. Parker is now at home after spending some time in the hospital at Laurinburg.

Mrs. J. M. McMillan has secured a house and is now making her home on Fayetteville Street.

Miss Betty Jean Wood, who spent some time at Gastonia about two years ago, is again a patient at the orthopedic hospital there.

Mrs. J. F. McDowell had the misfortune of falling and breaking her hip one day recently.

Mrs. Maude Koonce celebrated her birthday Sunday at a birthday dinner.

Don't forget to look on the front page for details of the fish supper at Galatia Friday night. It is for the organ fund and everyone is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Jones of High Point College spent the week-end at home.

Mrs. Louis Francis, Mrs. Richard Franklin and daughter, Diane of Miami Florida, are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Wood and family this week.

Cotton dusting seems to be making people sick and it is too bad when there is such a need for dusting. Why doesn't some one find a liquid spray for cotton weevils like Flitel for the flies?

Mrs. G. B. Murphy and children of 71st and Mrs. G. A. Monroe spent the day in Greenville Monday.

D. B. Parker of Wayside was a Rockfish visitor Tuesday. He had just received a letter from Marion Wood, who is in Korea and was telling Marion's father, A. W. Wood, of its contents. Among other things he said that Marion had been deer hunting in Korea and that the deer over there were very small, not much larger than our dogs.

Mr. and Mrs. Carley Crawley and family, who have been visiting, Mrs. Crawley's mother, Mrs. Laura Crawley, returned to Chester, Pa., Saturday.

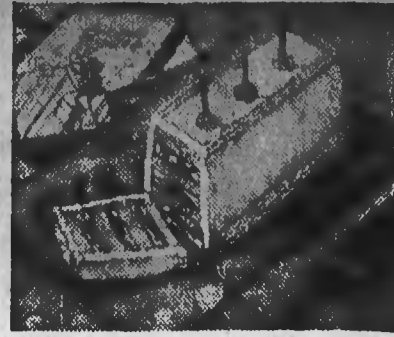

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Newton and Mrs. Newton's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Martain, spent last week at Bogue Sound.

Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Parker visited their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Parker, who is director of religious education at Kinley Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Millikan of High Point spent several days last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lovette.

Mrs. John Smith entertained the Intermediate Sunday School Class at a swimming party Saturday evening at Waldo's Beach. A picnic supper was enjoyed after swimming.

Mrs. Clifford Miller and Mrs. Jimmy Plummer were hostesses to the Young People of Parker's church Wednesday evening at a coca-cola party honoring Mr. and

FOR ladies only—this elegant birthday party loaf. It's something to really catch the eye and capture the appetite of an appreciative female. Just look at its satin-smooth frosting of cream cheese and real mayonnaise, the dainty ribbon decoration of the same frosting. Look closer and you'll drool at the sight of three luxurious-tasting fillings. The first is creamy avocado, the second, a fruity sweet, the third, a delicate chicken and almond mixture. Birthday Party Loaf has been perfected by Nancy Holmes in the Best Foods consumer kitchens. Here's how easy you can make it for your next party.

Birthday Party Loaf

- 1/2 lb. cream cheese
- 3/4 cup real mayonnaise
- 1 loaf unsliced bread
- 1 medium-sized avocado
- 4 sprigs watercress, etc.
- Salt and pepper
- 1 orange, diced
- 3 stewed prunes, sliced
- 1 cup chopped chicken
- 2 Tbs. slivered almonds

Blend cream cheese and 1/2 cup mayonnaise to spreading consistency. Trim crusts from bread. Cut 4 lengthwise slices and spread cut sides with mayonnaise. Spread bottom slice with blend of avocado, watercress, 1 tablespoon mayonnaise and seasoning. The next slice with 3 tablespoons of cream cheese mixture, orange and prunes. The third with chicken, almonds, 3 tablespoons mayonnaise and seasoning. Reassemble slices. Frost loaf with cream cheese mixture, reserving some for decorating with a pastry tube. Cover loaf with waxed paper and a damp cloth. Chill thoroughly. Place loaf on serving plate and decorate. Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

Mrs. Fred McFadyen, who were recently married.

Mrs. Herman Koonce and Mrs. Dorothy Gillis entertained the PYF of Galatia and the MYF of Parker's Friday afternoon at a Swimming party at Page's Lake.
