

ROCKFISH NEWS.

By Mrs. A. A. McInnis.

The 4-H club enjoyed a party at Rockfish school house Tuesday evening. Miss Josephine Hall and E. M. Stallings of Raeford were present to assist with the entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bracey, formerly of Raeford, have moved to what is known as the Stone place near Rockfish. Three of their children entered school here this week. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Bracey and family to Rockfish and feel sure that they will be a valuable addition to the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Smith and children, Mr. and Mrs. Melzer Johnston and Mr. and Mrs. George Davis and children of Wilmington were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Bostic Sunday.

Among those attending the First Piano Quartet at Southern Pines last week from Rockfish vicinity were: Miss Alle and Katie Black, Mrs. Mary McInnis, J. A. Black, Dunk Harris and Thomas McInnis. Some of these also went to hear Jean Casadesus, French pianist, who was presented at Flora Macdonald college Friday evening.

Mrs. W. T. Boseman was taken to Pittman hospital Tuesday for a few days treatment.

W. L. Martin, who has been a patient at Duke hospital or some time is expected to come home this week.

Relatives of Rev. W. C. Smith of Sylvester, Ga., have received word that he is critically ill in a Georgia hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ray and son of Lakerim were dinner guests of Mrs. Marshall Ray Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Gillis Ray and son and Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Ray and son of Fayetteville spent some time with their mother, Mrs. Marshall Ray, Sunday.

The BTU of the Tabernacle Baptist church, and the pastor, Rev. D. E. Miller, gave a party for Miss Betty Jean Wood at her home on Monday evening. They played games, sang Christmas carols and presented Miss Wood with Christmas gifts. After the gifts were opened and displayed, refreshments were served and everyone went home happy with the Christmas spirit in their hearts because they had made some one else happy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hardin had as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Koonce of Fayetteville. Mr. Hardin's brother, Vander Hardin, and Boyd Smith of Lumberton visited them Monday.

The Christmas program at Tabernacle Baptist Church has been announced for Sunday evening, December 23.

Lloyd Crowley of Raeford was a very welcome visitor to Rockfish Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Stephenson and sons of Benson, and Mr. and Mrs. Hollingsworth of Raleigh were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Barbour Sunday.

The Christmas program at Galatia church has been changed somewhat since last week. The Christmas tree and children's program will still be on Thursday night, December 20, but the pageant and Christmas music by the choir will probably be on Sunday night, December 23, unless there are further changes to keep from conflicting with other churches.

A. B. Jones is erecting a building on his lot, a garage, "smokehouse" or wash house. He will tell us what it is when he completes it.

David McInnis of Lakerim visited his aunt, Mrs. Marshall Ray Sunday. Other guests in the home of Mrs. Ray Sunday were Misses Catherine Ann, Jessie May and Jeanette McInnis, nieces of Mrs. Ray, all of Florence, S. C. and Miss Viola Ellis of Fayetteville.

The folks from Fayetteville St., who are not use to much traffic, can hardly cross "Main" street here in Rockfish, especially when the stream of workers from Fort Bragg are coming home. Little Homer and Dixie Dudes complained of the traffic lights when they here but they don't bother anyone else.

Mrs. J. W. Caddell and daughter, Mrs. Albert Sanders, spent last Thursday in Charlotte visiting Mrs. Richard Manies. Mrs. Caddell also visited her uncle, J. T. Liles of Maxton Sunday.
