

YOUR SCHOOL NEWS
By K. A. MacDonald

The Rockfish school board had a meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of the chairman and elected Ralph Street of Buladean, N. C. as principal, replacing T. C. Jones who had announced his resignation early in March.

Mr. Street comes highly recommended and made an excellent impression on all who met him. He is a brother of James W. Street, principal of the Millington school.

W. P. Phillips, head of the vocational agriculture department at Hoke High, is attending the state conference of agricultural teachers being held at Carolina Beach this week.

Last Wednesday evening the Rockfish School put on its Grammar Grade program. This consisted of a play "An Apple for the Teacher"; music by Mrs. P. C. English; the salutatory by Elizabeth Ann Overton; poem by Betty Lee; song by the grades; poem by Howard Hobson and the valedictory by Betty Scarborough. The principal and superintendent then presented the awards.

Just as the exercises were ending Mrs. English asked for a word. She then, on behalf of the pupils and parents, expressed their thanks and appreciation for work done at Rockfish to Principal Jones and Mrs. B. B. Cole of the faculty, who had handed in her resignation. Mrs. English praised the work of these two and voiced the regret of the parents at their leaving. To emphasize all she had been saying, before taking her seat, Mrs. English presented, on behalf of those she spoke for, substantial gifts to both of these resigned teachers and wished them Godspeed in their new fields of labor.

Most of the teachers and principals have gone for the summer. However, J. W. Turlington, book-room manager, is still here checking books and winding up his work for the year. Both Principals Gibson and Page are still on the job and may be contacted at the schools if necessary. Both elementary supervisors are also here and busy winding up the work of the year and beginning to get ready for next year.

The Peachmont school celebrated its last closing, exercises last Thursday afternoon with a picnic dinner and exercises by the pupils. The people attended well and expressed their enjoyment of the occasion and their appreciation of the work of their teachers and regret that their school was to be abandoned. They at the same time expressed their appreciation of the fact that the Board of Education was preparing to give them much better educational advantages.

The Timberland school also celebrated its last closing exercises on Thursday. These began right after noon with an exhibit of school work, and an exercise put on by the children of the lower grades. In the late afternoon a picnic supper was served and that night the children of the grammar grades gave an entertainment. This school will be consolidated with Upchurch next fall.

Shady Grove had its closing exercises Thursday night. The children put on exercises that were most entertaining and instructive. A crowded house responded heartily to them. The pupils and teachers showed that they had worked hard by the grade of the entertainment given. The superintendent made a short talk and informed the audience that in all probability this school would be continued for several years. This seemed to meet the approval of the people.

Rebels Make Progress In Raising Money

The Raeford Rebels, determined to give Raeford a winning ball team and also equip the park, announced this week that they had collected a total of $172.00 of their goal of $500.00 for rebuilding purposes. They said that they hoped to have the remainder of the sum raised by the middle of next week. As soon as the money is received they plan to start immediately replacing the light bulbs and reflectors now out of order.

Contributors donating money include: Clayton Bouyer $10.00; Luke McNeill $10.00; Dr. Julius Jordan $10.00; Bill Upchurch $10.00; Elk Restaurant $10.00; Howell Drug Co. $10.00; Walter Parks $10.00; Hotel Raeford $10.00; Brantley Allen $10.00; John K.
