

TODAY'S Meditation

The Upper Room
THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

Humble yourselves . . . under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you. (I Peter 5:6,7). Read II Corinthians 8:1-7.

Usually each day our cares are many: the cares of home and children, of the church, the community, the nation, the hard international conditions; the financial problems, such as, debts, the inability to make both ends meet; poor health, old age, and the daily uncertainty of life.

We need not bear these alone. We can bring them all to the great Burden-Bearer, Christ, Himself! Has He not said to us, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest?"

One burden, however, we often keep—self. Self is the cause of most of our cares. Self must be laid down, for the promise is: "He careth for you." How do we do this? Much like a little child, who is tired from carrying something which has been above his strength. He simply drops it and nestles in his loving mother's arms. If thus we bring ourselves to Christ, we rest in His love and know the joy and happiness of contentment and peace.

PRAYER
Heavenly Father, we come to Thee with all our cares and burdens and self. We seek of Thee rest and strength. Grant us the comfort and joy of Thy fatherly love. In Jesus' name we ask it. Amen.

Farm Questions

QUESTION: What is the best variety of wheat to plant?

ANSWER: F. J. Bell, seed and small grain specialist for State College Extension Service, says that more farmers should have asked this question earlier, because surveys indicate many Tar Heels are not choosing the right wheat variety to plant for their next crop.

As a result, many growers will harvest inferior yields and poor quality wheat next spring.

In the Piedmont, Atlas 50, Atlas 66, and Coker 47-27 are the best varieties. In the 1952 Official Variety Tests conducted by the N. C. Crop Improvement Association on Piedmont farms, these varieties yielded as follows: Atlas 50, 48.1 bushels per acre; Atlas 66, 47 bushels; Coker 47-27, 49 bushels. Varieties not recommended for the Piedmont — Thorne, Bearded, Redhart, and Leap — yielded five to 10 bushels less than the recommended varieties.

Another factor in choosing a wheat variety is the premium paid for the crop at harvest time. Markets at Statesville and Kernersville have been established to buy milling wheat at premium prices. At present Atlas 50 and Atlas 66 are receiving premiums of 25 cents per bushel over other varieties, a fact that further suggests the need for growers to choose their variety carefully and wisely.

For growers who are unable to obtain certified seed of recommended wheat varieties, a seed exchange is being operated as a public service in Statesville and Kernersville where farmers can obtain certified seed of Atlas wheat now in exchange for combine-run wheat to be returned at 1953 harvest time.

A Lesson in Building

This youngster is learning the rudiments of one of the oldest and most useful of the human arts—the art of building. It was a great day in the life of primitive man when he learned to put sticks and stones together and build things.

From the crude structures of humanity's infancy, the art of building has progressed to its present amazing proportions. Today we have beautiful residences, imposing churches, sprawling factories, tall skyscrapers and far-flung bridges.

Life itself is a building process which begins in infancy and runs throughout our days. All the knowledge we acquire, all our experiences, habits, thoughts, ideals, and emotions are laid block on block to form the pattern of our character.

And the strength of the life we build is measured in terms of faith—faith in God and in good. With this faith man can bind together the elements of his life in an enduring structure. The Church and the Bible are the best guides in the building of a life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community. (3) For the sake of the church itself. (4) For the sake of the world which needs his moral and social support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
