GIVE TWO PARTIES FOR MISS GRAHAM

Miss Anne Graham, popular bride-elect of this month was shown two attractive bridal courtesies at the home of Mrs. Herbert McKeithan on Thursday of last week.

Arrangements of coral glads made the living room attractive and in the dining room red and white roses were used.

In the afternoon at three o'clock Mrs. McKeithan and her daughter, Miss Lydia McKeithan, entertained at a coffee hour. At this time friends and contemporaries of the honoree were invited and enjoyed an hour of lively conversation. Miss Graham and Mrs. D. B. Herring of Aberdeen, who before her marriage in the Methodist Church here Saturday evening was Miss Betty Davis, were both presented corsages of white carnations on arrival, and later they were presented attractive gifts. Mrs. John Scott Poole of Southern Pines, recent bride, was also remembered with a gift.

At 4:30 the same afternoon Miss Graham was honored when the members of the coca-cola bridge club, of which Mrs. McKeithan and the honoree's mother, Mrs. Arch Graham, are members, gathered at the McKeithan home. The climax of this gathering was reached when the bride-elect was presented many lovely and useful gifts from those present.

On both occasions guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments. Mrs. Graham who was seated at one end of the attractively appointed table, poured coffee. A variety of party sandwiches, candies, nuts and cakes were served with the coffee.

FINE ARTS DEPT. MEETS TUESDAY

The Fine Arts Department of the Woman's Club met Tuesday evening, January 6, at the home of Mrs. Sam Hiser, with Mrs. Chandler Roberts and Mrs. Donald Stubbs serving as joint hostesses.

Two new members welcomed into the club were Miss Dorothy Collins and Mrs. R. P. Dewitt. Mrs. Furman Clark and Isobel McFadyen were leaders and they presented an interesting program on poetry of the 19th century.

Guests of the club were Mrs. W. E. Willis, Mrs. Ray Griffin, Mrs. Joe Dombkowski, Mrs. R. L. Shuford and Mrs. Thomas Riley. After the program the hostesses served a delicious dessert course with coffee.

Matheson, are among the 300 young girls from all parts of North Carolina who have accepted invitations to serve as sponsors for the Inaugural Ball, which will be held on Thursday evening to honor Governor-elect William B. Umstead and Mrs. Umstead. The ball is being given by the Raleigh Post, No. 1 of the American Legion and the Junior League of Raleigh, jointly, and will be opened at nine o'clock in the evening by the Sponsor's Figure.

The Sponsors will wear white dresses and will carry flowers of red, white and blue, the North Carolina State Colors.

ENJOY BUFFET SUPPER

Miss Katherine Blue and Alfred Cole, Jr. were hosts at a buffet supper at the home of Miss Blue's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Blue, last Thursday evening.

The occasion honored two of Raeford's newlywed couples and two couples whose weddings will be events of this month. They were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert McKeithan, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Scott Poole, Miss Betty Davis and Lt. D. B. Herring, and Miss Anne Graham and William Poole. Each couple was presented an attractive gift.

Glads and potted plants in varicolored shades decorated the entertaining rooms. An arrangement of all white with greenery centered the dining table, from which the delectable supper was served.

Around 30 of the town's young people, including those home from college for the holidays, were present to enjoy the hospitality of Miss Blue and Mr. Cole.

MESDAMES COLE, BLUE ENTERTAIN FRIDAY

Friends of Mrs. Alfred Cole and Mrs. J. H. Blue were complimented when Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Blue entertained at the home of the latter on Friday afternoon of last week.

Five tables were arranged for bridge in the living room and den, which had been made attractive for the occasion with arrangements of glads and pretty potted plants. At the end of several interesting progressions the high score prize was awarded to Mrs. A. K. Currie, and the tables were cleared for the delicious supper the hostesses served.

J. J. Murray, Jr., Rhodes Scholar, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Murray of Lexington, Va. was a guest of Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Murray and Bob Thursday night. Jim is on vacation from school at Oxford, England after 18 months of special study of herpetology. He sailed on the Queen Mary from New York Tuesday for Oxford University where he plans to conclude his three years of work in his chosen field.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Long and son, Bobby, spent last Thursday with Mrs. W. B. Gulleddge and family. Mrs. Gulleddge returned to Charlotte with them.

DINNER PARTY HONORS CULBRETHS FRIDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Neeley entertained Mr. and Mrs. Fred Culbreth, who are moving to Atlanta soon, with a dinner party at their home north of Raeford on Friday evening at seven o'clock.

Covers for twelve were laid at the dining room table which was centered with an attractive green and white arrangement. Those enjoying the Neeley's hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. Neill McFadyen, Mr. and Mrs. John McPhaul, Mr. and Mrs. Dean White and the Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Heyward. The Culbreths were remembered with a lovely gift.

SISTERS SPEAK VOWS IN PINEBLUFF CHURCH

The Methodist Church of Pinebluff was the scene of a beautiful candlelight wedding on Sunday afternoon, December 21, when Miss Sylvia Collins became the bride of James Leroy Smith and Miss Shirley Jean Collins became the bride of Johnny Fletcher Tucker.

The Rev. Charles A. Ledford, pastor of the church, conducted the double ring ceremony for both couples. Miss Ruth Troutman of Greensboro College, organist, presented the wedding music. HERRING - DAVIS VOWS SPOKEN

On Saturday afternoon, January the third, in a candlelight service, Miss Elizabeth Robinson Davis, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Speed Davis and the late Mr. Davis of Raeford, became the bride of Lt. Darius B. Herring, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Darius B. Herring of Aberdeen.

The ceremony was performed in the Raeford Methodist Church at 5 o'clock with the Rev. John T. Maides, cousin of the bride, officiating.

Prior to the ceremony, a program of wedding music was presented by Miss Mary Jo Davis of West End, cousin of the bride, organist, and Miss Katherine Blue of Raeford, soloist. The Lord's Prayer was sung at the conclusion of the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, John E. Davis, of Dunedin, Florida, wore a gown of candlelight satin with fitted bodice and full skirt with court train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from satin cap embroidered in seed pearls and bugle beads. She carried a Bible belonging to her grandfather, the late Rev. B. P. Robinson, which was given to him by her great-grandfather, the late Rev. John Oliver Tew. The Bible, covered in white satin, was topped with three white laelia alba orchids with baby white calanthe orchids attached to white satin ribbon streamers.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her cousin, Mrs. John T. Maides, of Stantonsburg, who wore a gown of American Beauty Rose net over taffeta fashioned with a fitted velvet bodice and attached matching stole. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations mingled with ice blue net and wore a bandeau of feathered carnations in her hair.

The bridesmaids, Miss Nellie Allen of Fayetteville, cousin of the bride, and Miss Jane Herring of Aberdeen, sister of the groom, wore delft blue gowns fashioned identical to the matron of honor's. They carried pink carnations tied with pink ribbons and wore in their hair bandeaux of feathered carnations, similar to those of the matron of honor.

The honorary bridesmaids were Miss Lydia McKeithan, Miss Gwen Gore, Miss Anne Graham, Miss Bonnie Kate Blue, Miss Sue Gulleddge, Miss Libby Suddreth, Miss Carlene Freeman and Mrs. Luke McNeill of Raeford, Miss Eleanor Leach of Raeford and Richmond, Va., Mrs. Vernon Brown of Winston-Salem and Miss Louise Wade of Dunn.

The bridegroom was attended by his father, Darius B. Herring, as best man. The ushers were Bob Allen of Fayetteville, Alfred Cole of Raeford, Frank McNeill of Aberdeen, and Jack Garty of Southern Pines.

The mother of the bride wore a gown of pink taffeta and her corsage was a deep lavender orchid.

The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of ice blue lace and her corsage was a pink orchid.

After the ceremony, a buffet supper was served to members of the family and out-of-town guests, at the home of the bride's mother.

The couple left shortly after the wedding for Florida where they will spend their honeymoon. For traveling, the bride wore a suit of dusky pink wool, with black accessories.

Mrs. Herring received her education at Hoke County High School and Greensboro College, where she graduated Magna Cum Laude. While at Greensboro College, she was president of the Student Body and was elected to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." She is a member of the Dunn High School faculty.

Lt. Herring received his education at Aberdeen High School and the University of North Carolina, where he was pledged to the Pi Kappa Phi fraternity. He received his commission from Officer's Candidate School at Fort Sill, Okla., and is now stationed at Fort Bragg.

MISS DAVIS HONORED ON MANY OCCASIONS

Luncheon Given Saturday

A bridal luncheon was given Miss Betty Davis on Saturday, January 3, at twelve o'clock by Miss Jane Herring and Mrs. D. B. Herring, Sr. of Aberdeen at the Tarheelian in Southern Pines.

The table was lovely with its centerpiece of white flowers and sprays of green fern. White lighted candles were placed at each side of the center arrangement. After the main course of the luncheon was served, a two tiered bride's cake was placed before Miss Davis to cut and serve.

The hostesses presented the bride a piece of silver in her pattern. At this time Miss Davis remembered each of her attendants with a gift.

Those attending the luncheon other than the bride and hostesses were Mrs. J. S. Davis, mother of the bride, Mrs. John T. Maides of Stantonsburg, Miss Nellie Allen of Fayetteville, Miss Katherine Blue and Miss Lydia McKeithan of Raeford, Miss Mary Jo Davis of West End and Mrs. John E. Davis of Dunedin, Fla.

Cake Cutting

After the wedding rehearsal of Miss Betty Davis and Lt. D. B. Herring, Jr. of Aberdeen, the wedding party, including the honorary bridesmaids, out-of-town guests and a few close friends were invited to the home of Mrs. D. R. Allen, aunt of the bride, of Fayetteville, for the cake cutting.

The Allen home was beautifully decorated with arrangements of white glads and carnations, mingled with greenery. The table was covered with a lovely crocheted cloth that had been used at the Golden Wedding celebration of Miss Davis' grandparents, the late Rev. and Mrs. B. P. Robinson. An arrangement of white flowers and candles trimmed in fern and ivy made an effective setting for the white four tiered wedding cake. After the bride cut the first slice she handed the server to Mrs. D. B. Herring, Sr., mother of the groom, who served the guests. Punch was poured by Mrs. J. S. Davis, mother of the bride and Mrs. John E. Davis, aunt of the bride.

Supper For Bride

Misses Elizabeth Suddreth and Gwen Gore entertained with a buffet supper on Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Gore, honoring Miss Betty Davis and her bridesmaids. A color scheme of green and white was carried out in the decorations. After supper the hostesses and guests surprised Miss Davis with a kitchen shower.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED AT LUNCHEON MONDAY

On Monday at one o'clock Miss Anne Graham, attractive bride-elect of next Sunday, was honored at a luncheon given by Mrs. Frank Tapp and Mrs. Chandler Roberts at the home of the former.

The dining table was centered with a miniature wedding scene.

Covers were laid for twelve at tables, which were centered with dainty arrangements of baby's breath, ivy and candles. The honoree's place was marked with a white corsage, and she was presented dinner plates in her china pattern.

Guests other than Miss Graham were: Mrs. William Holt and Mrs. William Arnold, cousins of the bride from Sanford, Mrs. Arch Graham, Miss Lona Graham, Miss Ila Graham, Mrs. W. L. Poole, Mrs. Jimmy Warner, Mrs. C. W. Worley, Mrs. Walter Baker, Mrs. Luke McNeill, Mrs. Neill McFadyen and Mrs. A. K. Currie.
