By Mrs. D. B. Traywick

Members of the committee for the Stonewall March of Dimes drive wish to take this means of thanking everyone who participated in the drive. From the supper at Mildouson we turned in $550 and feel confident that our quota will be easily reached.

Mrs. Luther Jackson, Jr., Mrs. Wilmer Hendrix, Mrs. D. B. Traywick, Peggy and Annette Jackson and Mrs. Ruth Bristow were all ill with flu last week. Mrs. A. J. Johnson and son, Troy, had the misfortune of losing their home by fire Saturday afternoon. The fire was caused by the heating oil stove that exploded. Mrs. Johnson was burned some on her hands and face trying to put out the fire. Hope her burns are not serious. Some of her bed clothing was saved.

Mrs. Razz Ellis is taking treatment now at Duke hospital, and is doing very well.

Mrs. Luther Ellis is recovering nicely now from a long illness.

To friends who would like to write Mrs. S. P. Traywick, her address is, 36 Ward Street, Moffitt Village, Wilmington. I know she would appreciate hearing from old friends and acquaintances. She is recovering now from the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Smith and Barbara, and some visiting relatives from Virginia are visiting friends in Georgia and Florida this week.

'LIFE BEGINS AT FORTY' AUTHOR DIES IN CALIF.

Palo Alto, Calif.—Walter B. Pitkin, author of the best-selling "Life Begins at Forty," died from a heart attack Sunday in a hospital here. He was 74.

He had been an editor, teacher and author throughout a vigorous life. His "Life Begins at Forty" was so popular the title phrase became a part of the language. The book gave a lift to millions of middle-aged Americans.

In the last few years, from 51 to 61 per cent of North Carolina's cash farm income has been from the sale of tobacco.
