ROCKFISH NEWS

By Mrs. A. A. McInnis.

The Brotherhood of Tabernacle Baptist church enjoyed a potluck supper at the church on Monday night. After the supper a Korean moving picture was shown. The public was invited to see the picture.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Johnson of Miles City, Montana, visited Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. George Mouroe, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wood, and other friends and relatives here the past week-end. They were accompanied by their airplane pilot and his wife.

Lt. S. B. Jones of Enid, Oklahoma, was a guest of Mrs. E. F. Williams last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Giles of Laurinburg were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Caddell Sunday p. m.

Mrs. G. B. Murphy and son, Gray Murphy and Mrs. Sam Parker of Seventy First, Mrs. E. F. Williams and Mrs. G. A. Monroe of Rockfish school spent Saturday at High Point college.

Miss Loretta Stephens and Miss Sylvia Miller accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Gibson to Campbell college last week to visit their daughter, Miss Sallie Gibson, who is a student there.

Mrs. Bundy Culbreth spent the past week end with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kirksy Culbreth, at High Point.

D. B. Parker of PJC, Maxton, spent the past week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Brown of Fayetteville were guests of Mrs. Marshall Ray Sunday p. m.

The Senior High Fellowship of Galatia church attended the Spring Rally at Laurinburg Sunday afternoon. Almost the entire group of the Senior High Fellowship attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bundy of Raeford visited Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Bundy Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. (Hughie) Capps of New York City were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Capps of Fayetteville and Mr. and Mrs. Melton Capps the past week.

Mrs. W. W. McLean and daughters, Misses Lois and Mary Wallace visited Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Wood and family Sunday p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Koonce visited Mrs. W. T. Boseman at Whispering Pines Sunday p. m.

The Wright and Tillman children who have had measles are about well now and no new cases have been reported, probably due to the fact that all their children are under school age.

Miss Patricia Ritter of F. M. C., Red Springs, spent the Spring holidays at home.

Mrs. Addie McDaniel of Fayetteville fell last week end and fractured a hip and an arm. Mrs. McDaniel has many friends and relatives here who wish for her speedy recovery.

The practice for the Easter Sunrise Service has gotten off to a good start now and although the attendance has been a little irregular at times, everyone who is participating will be present, if possible, from now on and a really good program for Easter morning will likely be the result. Everybody be catching up on your sleep so you'll be ready to rise early and come to Tabernacle Baptist church at sunrise on Easter morning.

Mrs. Carolyn Baker and children and Miss Gabriella Dove of Willow Springs spent the past week end with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dove.

Mrs. Maud Gillis, Mrs. David McInnis, Misses Allie and Katie Black of Fayetteville, Route 3, visited Mrs. F. P. Bethea Sunday

p. m. Also, Mrs. William Gillis and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Gillis.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barnard of Fayetteville were also guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dove Sunday p. m.

C. D. Alford and son, Malcolm, of Lumber Bridge, were Rockfish visitors Monday.

Mrs. Rayborn Barbour of Parkton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Barbour.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Barbour of Portsmouth have moved to his new home near his mother, Mrs. G. L. Barbour's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Barbour and baby daughter visited in the home of Mrs. Will McNeill of Raeford Sunday.

D. J. Kelley, "The Friendly Magazine Man", of Lumberton visited Rockfish Monday.

Friends of Mr. Marshall Newton are glad to hear that he is improving.

The party line is not working so well this week. We hope Mr. Dickson will see that no nit gets into Rockfish news this week.

At this writing the weather is favorable to the Nail Keg Club, but the Do Nothing Club has almost vanished with the coming of Spring.
