trance. They did an excellent job and the addition is quite an asset to the school.

The Hoke librarian announces the addition of fifty books to the library.

On next Wednesday 70 science students at Hoke High will go to Chapel Hill for a visit to the Planetarium. They will be accompanied by two teachers.

Next Thursday 36 seniors will leave for their annual trip to Washington. They will be accompanied by Earle Huggins and Mrs. Cook, instead of W. T. Gibson, as formerly reported.

The following Beta Club members from Hoke High will attend the State Convention in Asheville Friday and Saturday: Carolyn Everleigh, Harriet Hodgins, Bobby McColl Shiela Balfour, Jonelle Sneed, and Gretchen Pate.

The Health Department is making an interesting parasite survey in one of the schools in the County. They are finding about an eighty per cent infestation. We hope everyone in the County will back up the Department in its efforts to secure better sanitary facilities.

The Raeford Graded school is planting shrubbery in front of the school that was furnished them by the PTA.

The County Board of Education, the local school board and various county and town officials connected with the schools in one way or another, were entertained at dinner by the Home Economics Department of the Upchurch school last Tuesday evening.

The girls in the above picture are winners in their local 4-H Clubs in the Biscuit Making Contest held recently. They are as follows: 1st row left to right, Mary Funnell of the Ashmont club, Margaret Smith of the Milhouson club, Charlotte Posey of the Raeford Graded club, Judy Almond of the Ashmont club, and Helen Mason of the Rockfish club. 2nd row, Pat McInnis of the Milhouson club, Joann King and Carol Everleigh of the Hoke High School club, Bobby Jean Culbreth of the Rockfish club, and Sarah Hargrove of the Raeford Graded School club. In the County contest, Judy Almond received first prize of $10.00, Carol Everleigh received $5.00 as 2nd place winner, and Bobby Jean Culbreth was declared 3rd place winner and received $1.00 as a prize.

with all they saw. We wish to not only compliment the students for their good work, but also, their teachers for the fine training they are giving their pupils.

We should mention that the boys who are taking training in preparation for hotel work served at the tables. They did an excellent job.

Upchurch played its first baseball game of the season Tuesday and defeated E. E. Smith high school 19-17. They were especially anxious to win this game as their former coach is now coaching at E. E. Smith. We will give their home game schedule next week.

The County colored schools wish to sincerely thank McNair's Cleaners for the donation of clothes that they received recently. These clothes have made it possible for quite a number of children to be kept in school. We appreciate this gift. Laurel Hill and Rockfish schools received a donation of books from the Raeford Graded school that they appreciate a great deal.
