Activities Around Antioch

By Miss Fronde Kennedy

The past week has been filled with activities — family gatherings, Easter egg hunts, club meetings, visits.

Outstanding was the celebration on Sunday of the birthday of Mr. J. A. Hodgins, his eighty-seventh. A huge birthday cake, platters of ham and fried chicken, and all the other goodies that go to make up a perfect picnic filled the long table at Cumberland Memorial Park, where the children and grandchildren and the family of the pastor gathered to sing "Happy Birthday" in the honoree. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Hodgins, Misses Joan and Katherine Hodgins, Mrs. Sarah McDonald and Angus, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hodgins, Misses Beverly, Jeannette and Claudine and David of Raeford; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hodgins, Harriet and Willie of Antioch; Mr. Charles Hodgins of Enfield; Mr. and Mrs. Pineknex Rodgers and Judy from Franklinville; the Rev. and Mrs. Gower Crosswell, Arthur, Mae, and Joe; and Miss Fronde Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Lytle were happy to have their two daughters and their husbands home for Easter—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith of Aberdeen and Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers Davis of Raeford.

The Lytle family went on Sunday afternoon to Cameron to attend the wedding of Miss Joyce Christian and Curtis McInnis, which took place in the Lemon Springs Christian church. Miss Donnie Lytle was a bridesmaid.

Mrs. Flora McLaughlin had as week end guests her children and grandchildren — Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McLaughlin and children of Burlington and Mr. and Mrs. Clarkson Stevenson and children of Chester, S. C.

Mrs. Joe Campbell had as visitors for the week end Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Campbell of Butler and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gibson and David visited the family of Dr. and Mrs. B. B. Dalton in Asheboro on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. A. Neville of Newberry, S. C. and sons, David, Lamar and William, spent Monday night with the Crosswell family. Mrs. Neville is Mrs. Crosswell's aunt.

Mrs. J. W. McPhaul had as Sunday visitors Mr. and Mrs. Graham McPhaul of Elkin.

Misses Wills, Bonnie, Jeannette, and Eloise McLaughlin spent Easter week end with their aunt, Mrs. A. M. McLaughlin, in Conover.

Mrs. Ruby Bizz spent last week with her two daughters in High Point.

Mrs. J. W. McPhaul went to Raleigh last Friday to see Mrs. Belle Currie, who is in a hospital there.

College students home for the holidays were Gerald Sappenfield from Lees-McRae, Johnny McPhaul from Wingate, and Carolyn McKemie from Flora Macdonald.

The Rev. Gower Crosswell and D. W. Gillis represented Antioch Church at the meeting of Presbytery in Lillington on Tuesday.

Mrs. J. W. Hasty is spending her second week in the hospital at Laurinburg.

Bill McNeill is in the hospital in Lumberton.

Little Miss Donna Bostic is back home from the hospital in Laurinburg after an appendectomy.

Mrs. Annie McNeill is confined to her home with a severe form of phlebitis.

The lawn of the Antioch manse presented a beautiful and colorful sight on Saturday afternoon as the children of the Sunday School enjoyed an Easter egg hunt, followed by games and ice cream.

The Home Demonstration Club of Antioch met on Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. F. K. Watson.

The Faculty Club of Flora Macdonald College held its April meeting Tuesday evening in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Gower Crosswell, who were members of the hostess committee. The program feature was an address by Dr. Marder, of the English Department at Pembroke State College. Dr. Marder is a Shakespeare scholar and edits the Shakespeare Quarterly.

Animal proteins such as those in meat, milk and eggs are not damaged by cooking and some are improved.

The quality of sweet potato seed selected for bedding determines to a large extent the quality for the crop.
